Michael Brown's Recollections, &c.

John Brown, father of Abraham, Michael, &c., came to the Valley this spring from Pine Grove township, Berks county. He bought the Andrew Edge warrantee, (late Michael and Christian Brown, Getz, &c.,) of Henry Spyker, for £8 per acre. There was then an old log cabin on it, in which Peter Spyker, son of Henry, lived. Michael Brown, late county commissioner, who was then seven years old, stated that he had eight children when he came, John, who went to Ohio; Elizabeth, married to Simon Christ, moved to Ohio; Christena, married to Philip Frederick; Peter, who went to Ohio; Abraham, lately deceased; William, Christian, Michael, and Jacob. Their mother died in 1806, the father, 1838, and both are buried in the Dreisbach grave-yard. He was born in Pennsylvania, served in the Revolution, was in the battle of Brandywine. His father came from Germany. Our neighbors were Lorentz Barnhart, who lived where Peter Getz lives; Kreighbaum, at David Schrack's; Christopher Weiser had a fulling-mill where Peter Wolfe now lives; Henry Poeth, father of old Henry, late of Lewisburg, was the sole inhabitant of Smoketown, which was a part of Spyker's land. He made there all the brick that were used in Lewisburg. Edward Morton lived where A. Frederick's barn now is; Bailey on R. Laird's place; John Zellers, where Samuel lately lived; John Aurand, on the Aurand place, now owned by John Zellers; Christian Gundy lived where John W. Brown now lives. From our place to Derrstown only ten acres were cleared where George Wolfe now lives. The road commenced at Spyker's, (now James S. Marsh's,) at the river, passed through part of the cemetery, the lane at Chamberlin's, came out at George Wolfe's, passed through Smoketown, skirted the ridge at Ellis Brown's and along by Morton's, (Schrack's now,) crossed the present pike above Beale's tavern; that, with the road to the cross-roads and the one up along the river, were the only three roads I recollect of. Jacob Musser lived on Meixell's place. The streets in Lewisburg were laid out, but the lots not fenced in. Black had a ferry near the dam. Valentine Miller was the undertaker of that day. John Beeber, lately living at Lewisburg, told me he came with his father this year to get a wagon at Jacob Stahl's, near the Union church. He was the wagon-maker

Hello again,

This is the latest List Owner Message....

I'd like us to to several things, we are getting to be a large list (372 people strong). We've had another 50 people join in just the last month(yes I keep stats). Keep telling your friends, cousins, fellow researchers about us.

The first thing I'd like to do is have a Roll Call, tell us where you are from and what names you are reasearching and where. With our numbers increasing, it's always a good idea to tell other what you might be looking for. When you do this please put ROLL CALL as part of the subject. We might find a connection or two that way. (aren't we always looking).

The second thing I'd like to do is get your feedback on what/where you would like to see the list go. Please send these messages to me directly (let's not clutter the list). Please put FEEDBACK in the subject.

Please excuse the clutter to the list of all the CLEMENT postings. I'm hoping that by posting these that you'll find a conection and that you will be able to add information. I would like to as my ultimate goal write a book about the CLEMENT line and this is how I know it will be a good way to add to it or make correction. So please give me feedback on that too.

If you could I'd also like to to take a look at my webpage and tell me what else you would like to see there.
http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Valley/9263

Well I guess that's enough for now. Look forward to see you do ROLL CALL and give me feedback.

BUTZ

JACOB BUTZ, the grandfather of Michael (573), is, according to tradition and other more reliable sources, descended from Otto Butz, A.D. 473. The Vienna Book of Heraldry calls the original ancestor "Butrus," who was taken to Germany as a prisoner of war in A.D. 160.

1. JACOB BUTZ had Jacob (574), Henry, Christian, Peter, George, Abraham, Catharine, Charlotte, Elisabeth, Rachael, Mary and Michael.

2. (574) JACOB BUTZ, the emigrant ancestor, had Michael (573), and perhaps others. He came to America before the emigration of 1727.

Is this the Michael naturalized in 1761?

AMERICAN GENEALOGY.

3. (573) MICHAEL BUTZ was born in Springfield tsp., Bucks Co., and died in Forks tsp. in July, 1779; m. Elizabeth Weaver, b. 11 July 1730, d. 6 Sept. 1795. Issue: CHRISTIAN (205), Adam (206), Mary (207), Peter (208), George (209), Michael (210), Cecilia (211), Abraham (212), Henry (213), Jacob (214), Charlotta (215), Elizabeth (216), Catharine (217), Margaret (218).

About the year 1763 Michael Butz removed to Forks tsp., near Easton, where he settled on a farm of 200 acres, which he had previously purchased from Paul Abel (10 May 1763). On the 13th of October he joined Captain Jacob Arndt's Colonial company. (Condit's History of Easton, p. 197; Fritts' History of Northampton, 1877, p. 53.) The original roll of this company is in the possession of B. M. Youells. He took the oath of allegiance on the 15th Dec. 1777 (No. 188). (Pa. Hist. Soc. Mss. Records, 1767-78, p. 251.)

4. (205) CHRISTIAN BUTZ, b. 18 Nov. 1756, d. 10 Oct. 1821; m. Mary Wagener (25), b. 18 Jan. 1760, d. 18 Jan. 1833. Issue: Susanna (32), Jacob (33), David (34), Mary (35), Michael (36), Daniel (37), Elizabeth (38).

CHRISTIAN BUTZ, son of Michael, was a member of Capt. Buss' (First) Company, Forks tsp., Fifth Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia, ordered to march 30 July 1778. (2d Pa. Arch. XIV, p. 577.) He took the oath of allegiance 30 Dec. 1777 (No. 195). (Pa. Hist. Soc. Mss. Rec. 1767–1778, p. 251.) In 1796 he was Assessor for Forks. In 1801 County Commissioner, and from 1811–1813 County Treasurer. The old Butz mill, built by Col. Kachlein in 1762, was purchased by Christian Butz from Andrew Kachlein.

Assessors return, Easton, 1806. Christian Butz, miller, at 200, 20¼ acres land, 1 lot, 2 mills, horses, mares, geldings, cattle.

4. (218) Margaret Butz.

Adam Butz, who died in Lower Saucon in the year 1806, was not unlikely a brother of Michael (573) and a son of Jacob, the emigrant ancestor. At the baptism of Michael's daughter Cecilia, 1767, Adam and Anna Margaretta Butz were the sponsors, and at the baptism of Adam's son John Michael, 1767, Michael and Elizabeth Butz were the sponsors.

Adam and Anna Margaretta Butz had John Michael (b. 1 May 1767), Nicholas (b. 29 June 1762), John (bap. 24 May 1772), Catharine (m. Henry Geissinger), Magdalena (m. Frederick Andreas), Peter, Adam, Maria (m. Jacob Miller), and George (ch.: Maria, Jesse, Samuel).

The Butz coat-armour is: shield, argent an eagle displayed azure; crest, a lion rampant dexter. Helmet, spangenhelme to dexter.

POTT, ABRAHAM, Coal Miner, was born at Oley Forge, Berks county, Pennsylvania, May 20th, 1799. He is a son of John Pott, the founder of Pottsville. The family is of German origin, and springs from two brothers who came to this county in 1732. John Pott was one of a large family, all of whom became residents of Schuykill county, About the year 1804, he purchased the "Physick Tract," upon which Pottsville is now built, beside other large parcels of land, including the site of the present town of Port Carbon, his intention being to engage in the manufacturer of charcoal pig iron. In 1806, he erected a furnace in that part of Pottsville now know as the "Orchard", at the northwest corner of Coal and Mauch Chunk streets. A forge was built shortly afterwards near the present location of the Pioneer Furnace. The ores used were bog ore, procured in the neighborhood, and ball ore gathered from the surface of the ground, the latter being the richest in quality. These remained in operation until 1827, when John Pott, the elder, died. It was demolished to make room for the canal basin. The Pott family moved to the furnace in 1810, at the time the Centre Turnpike was approaching completion. The present site of Pottsville was in a state of nature, except a log-house with half acre of cleared ground. The iron, as run from the furnace, was cast into hollow ware and stoves, and traded to farmers, generally from the Susquehanna for grain etc.. This was ground in the " Shollenburger Mill" which John Pott erected, and in digging for the foundation the outcrops of coal veins were struck, but this was not regarded of as any value. One David Berlin, a blacksmith, however, conceived the idea that it might be used in a blacksmith's fire, , and did so use it for four months during the erection of the mill. He built his fire with charcoal. Some others followed his example. It was not until 1816 that the method of burning it in stoves and grates was understood, and then Abraham Pott, who slept in the mill, discovered it by accident. On a bitterly cold night during that winter he built a roaring fire with hickory staves, and on this threw some small pieces of the anthracite and retired to rest, but was awakened about four A.M. by the intense heat and found the stove red hot. He was much alarmed, and ran for his father, who came; an investigation was made, and the true mode of using the coal in small pieces, and not in large lumps, was made apparent. At this time the Sckuylkill Canal was being built, but it was designed for the use of the lumber trade. Coal was taken to Philadelphia in 1821 on flats by Abraham Pott, also in 1822 and 1823, two or three trips being made each year. The first boat built for the canal was by the company called the "Pioneer". Abraham Pott shortly after built the "Stephen Decatur". They each carried about twenty eight tons. In 1824, they started on the first trip to Philadelphia, but only proceeded as far as Reading. In 1821, the speculators in land began to arrive, and during this year Abraham Pott started mining coal from Salem an Tunnel veins, continued it for four years, and then operated and worked coal from Guinea Hill. In 1826, he took a contract from the North American Coal Company to deliver coal for $1.70 per ton into boats at the mouth of Mill Creek. The canal at this time was just being completed from Mount Carbon to Port Carbon. He had been a diligent reader of Strickland's Reports on English Railways, and appreciated the fact that coal could be moved cheaper by this mode than by wagons to the canal. Though he never seen a railway, yet from these reports he undertook to construct one, devising even the car to run on the road, and the style has never been altered. This was the first railway laid down in Schuylkill county, and was of forty inch gauge. The building of the railway necessitated the erection of a schute or bin to hold the coal, and this he also constructed. When the canal was finished the director of the company visited the work, and were amazed to see a single horse drawing a train of eight or ten loaded cars with ease, and the ingenious devise for dumping the coal into bin. The projector was proud of his work, and advised the directors to enlarge their canal, and at the next session of the Legislature to have railroad privileges added to their charter but they treated the matter as chimerical In 1829, he went into partnership with Burd Patterson in the mining of coal on the Mayfield tract, and was also connected with him in his early experiments in the manufacture of pig-iron with anthracite coal. Rev. Dr. Geisenheimer and his coadjutor is due the credit of having made the first anthracite pig-metal. The latter is still living, a hale, hearty old man, universally loved and esteemed. He is almost the last of the old pioneers, and a memory singularly accurate, many a pleasant hour is passed in his company by young men of the present generation, in learning the history of the past from one who part of that history was.

Old Buildings.—Among the old buildings in the township is part of an out-building on the old Sheetz farm, now owned by Peter Marshall, which, it is thought, was put up by Conrad Weiser. It is a low two-story building. It contains a large fire-place in the upper and lower rooms. As the walls are very massive, the idea of using the building as a means of protection is suggested. The Weiser farm contained two hundred and forty-eight acres of land, not very remarkable for fertility; and the selection was more likely made on account of the abundance of excellent water and the fine timber which covered the ground. East from this farm are several old buildings, used for public purposes when the highway was along the base of hills, where these houses stand. One of these is stone, the other of logs; but both are in a well-preserved condition. West, on the turnpike, is a large, frame-building in which John Seltzer and others kept a tavern.

Early Settlers.—North of Womelsdorf one of the early settlers was John Deppen, who resided there until his death. He was the father of sons named Samuel, Joseph, Isaac, Adam and Michael. Some of their descendants still live in the township.

Among many other families who contributed to the development of the township were the Eckerts, Filberts, Fidlers, Leisses, Lauckses, Livingoods and Seltzers, most of whom have retained their landed interests.

Grave of Conrad Weiser.—The remains of Conrad Weiser and his wife still lie where they were interred a hundred and twenty-six years ago. The burial-plat is in the orchard on the Sheetz farm, about fifty yards west from the house and three-quarters of a mile east from Womelsdorf. It is situated between the turnpike and Lebanon Valley Railroad. When the place was visited by the writer, November 12, 1885, there was nothing to indicate the spot except a single head-sandstone, on which was engraved,—

> "Dieses is die
> Ruhe Staette des > woyl ehren geachten M. Conrad Weiser, > derselbige ist geboren 1696 den 2. November > in Afsteat, im Amt Herrenberg, im
> Wittenberger Lande, und gestorben
> 1760 den 13. Julius, ist > alt worden 63 jahr
> 8 Monat und 13 Tage."

This inscription was recut, in 1884, by Peter Marshall, the present owner of the farm. The headstone on the grave of Conrad Weiser's wife lies prostrate; and the numerous stone slabs, which formerly marked graves supposed to have been those of Indians, have been removed, the latter indicated graves having an east and west direction, while the Weiser graves are from north to south. A number of years ago the Sheetz family had enclosed this burial-plat with a neat fence, but at present no such division is shown, the graves being a common part of the orchard.

Industries.—As early as 1790 members of the Bennethum family had a small tannery, east of Womelsdorf, on the old State road. This interest has been carried on at that point ever since, and for the past twenty years by Henry J. Moyer. Since being the owner he very much increased the capacity, operating by steam since 1873. There are in all fifty vats, and the product is oak-tanned harness leather. In the early history of the tanning very fine calf and kip leathers were made.

Below this point, on the same road, an active industry has been developed in sand-mining, a very large deposit having been found, which, in 1885, was placed on the market by steam machinery, operated by David Sheetz. West of Robesonia, Samuel R. Deppen has manufactured lime for some years, producing yearly about thirty-five thousand bushels. The stone there quarried yields ninety per cent. of carbonate of lime.

"The Robesonia Furnace" is situated south of Robesonia, on Spring Creek. In 1794 George Ege here began the manufacture of iron in what was known as the Reading Furnace, erecting it after he had abandoned the Berkshire Furnace, in Lower Heidelberg township. He carried on the same successfully until 1824, when a depression in business caused him to suspend. In the course of years Robeson & Brooke became the owners, having the property until 1858, when Ferguson, White & Co. came in possession of it; while owned by them the name of the furnace was changed to Robesonia. Nathaniel Ferguson was a skillful and successful iron-master, but was obliged by weight of years to relinquish the business in 1885. It is now carried on by the "Robesonia Iron Company, Limited." In 1845, while owned by Robeson & Brooke an anthracite furnace was put up in place of the charcoal furnace. In 1858 another furnace of larger capacity was erected in its place, and other improvements were made afterwards. While putting up a new stack an accident occurred, on November 7, 1884, by the falling of a large furnace-stack, which had been in process of construction the previous June, which resulted in the death of seven men—Joseph Reed, Davilla Beckley, Henry Spangler, David M. Person, Monroe Peipher, Frederick Foreman and Henry Putt—and the wounding of eight others—Lewis Dietrich, Jacob Fox, John Weinhold, James McCloskey, Charles F. Moyer, John Capp, Frank Spatz and Frederick Knause.

The demolished stack stood on cast-iron columns thirty feet high, and the body of the stack was forty feet more in height and fifty feet in diameter. Within were the seven men engaged on the lining and they had almost reached the top, within fifteen feet, working on the scaffolding on the in-walls. Below were the bricklayers and tenders. Beneath all was Henry Putt, an old man, whose labor consisted in filling the buckets with fire-brick and clay. The cause of the fall was the breaking of the columns, which fell like a flash all in a heap and without warning. The wall did not fall at once, but the scaffolding fell and then the walls gave way, covering the victims within a living grave By the stack stood the casting-house, part of which was carried away by the fall. The columns twisted clean out before the fall. The cause was the weakness of the support on which the stack rested, the weight having been three thousand tons.

The damage to the property was repaired as speedily as possible. but it was deemed best to practically rebuild the furnace in 1885. Accordingly, the present owners availed themselves of all the improvements suggested by the most approved systems of iron manufacture, so that the capacity is now about one thousand tons per week, making the furnace in all its appointments and attendant interests one of the most valuable properties in the eastern part of the State. Employment is given to more than one hundred and fifty men. The ore used is procured from the celebrated Cornwall mines, in Lebanon County, on which the furnace holds a perpetual ore-right for the gratuitous supply of as much ore as will keep one stack in blast. Owing to improved methods, this amount is now thirty times greater than when the contract giving this right was entered into.

The fine cut-stone mansion, built by George Ege, at the furnace, in 1807, has also been repaired, and the grist-mill, long in operation, has been improved to meet the wants of present customers.

East of Robesonia is a spring of unusual size and beauty, popularly called, from its former owner, Gernant's Big Spring. In 1775 it was known as "Allen's Spring." Its water is very clear and refreshing, with a volume large enough to furnish power for a mill several hundred yards below the spring. One of the early owners of this mill was Daniel Bechtol. The present improved mill is the property of James T. Reber, hardware merchant of Reading. The next water-power below operated a woolen-mill for John Eckert, now discontinued, as well as a distillery, which was carried on some time in the same building.

On the farm of the Orphans' Home is one of the finest springs in the county. Its volume is great. Power was afforded to operate a grist-mill and distillery a few hundred yards below it. This place became widely known as "Manderbach's Summer Resort," and was largely patronized. The distillery produced a fine quality of whiskey. Large wagons conveyed it to distant counties There were also grounds for target practicing, Manderbach himself having been well skilled in the use of the rifle. The mill still remains, but the distillery has long since been demolished.

CHURCHES.

ST. DANIEL'S CHURCH is situated a mile north of Robesonia, at the intersection of several roads, from which fact it is sometimes called "Die Ecke Kirche." The present building was put up in 1814. It has been remodeled and improved inside so that it bears little resemblance to its original condition. It is the third house used as a place of worship at this point, the first having been of logs, and built during the early settlement of the country. The building preceding the present one was put up in 1757; the congregation had the ministry of the Rev. John Nicholas Kurtz, who lived at Stouchsburg.

Upon the dedication of the present church the pastor was Rev. Daniel Ulrich, who served the congregation thirty-nine years. Then came the Revs. T. T. Iaeger, eleven years; H. S. Miller, one year; and the Rev. Aaron Finfrock, since 1863.

Until December 25, 1876, the church was entirely under the control of the Lutherans; then Rev. T. C. Leinbach organized a German Reformed congregation, with twenty-nine members, which prospered to such an extent that in 1885 the membership was one hundred and fifty-five. Mr. Leinbach is still pastor.

The affairs of the church are now controlled by the two congregations. The property includes well kept cemeteries and a residence. In the latter is the home of John S. Henry, for many years the organist.

In the same locality are the grounds of the "Heidelberg Cemetery Company," embracing several acres of land, which was opened to the public in 1880. It has been made an attractive place.

Union Chapel is situated at Robesonia. It is a neat stone chapel, built in 1869 by Ferguson, White & Co , furnace owners, for the free use of such religious bodies as may choose to maintain worship there. It was dedicated May 1, 1870. Originally intended for the accommodation of the furnace employees, it has proven a great convenience to the people of the village. A Sunday-school is regularly conducted in it, which is well attended by all classes. For many years Nathaniel Ferguson was the superintendent. The Presbyterians and German Baptists most frequently worship in the chapel.

Bethany Orphans' Home.—This charitable institution is located near Womelsdorf Station, on the Lebanon Valley Railroad. It was founded September 21, 1863, at Philadelphia, Pa., by a number of Synods of the German Reformed Church of North America, but at present is maintained by but two Synods of that church. The location at Philadelphia not being desirable, the home was moved to Bridesburg July 13, 1864, where it remained about three years. On account of the prevalence of sickness among its inmates, a new location was sought where greater healthfulness could be obtained in connection with other advantages. Accordingly, for this purpose the property known as "Manderbach's Summer Resort," comprising twenty-six acres of land, on which was a three-story brick building, thirty-six by one hundred and twenty feet, mill and other improvements, was purchased in 1867 and fitted up to adapt it to the wants of the Home, and the institution was transferred October 1st of that year. In the fall of 1872 a farm of sixty acres of good land was added to the property and the necessary buildings provided to carry it on as part of the Home. The last improvement was a fine barn, in 1885, at a cost of two thousand three hundred dollars. Here the Home enjoyed uninterrupted prosperity until the midnight of November 11, 1881, when the main house and some other buildings were destroyed by fire, with all their contents, the inmates only escaping. The old mill and remaining buildings were fitted up, and after a short interruption the work of the Home was carried on as before. Steps were at once taken to rebuild the Home, and under the management of Mr. Isaac McHose, of Reading, as chairman of the building committee, the present superior three-story brick structure was erected and ready for use in December, 1882. The building is finely finished, heated throughout by steam and lighted by gasoline. Water is supplied on each floor from a reservoir on the mountain side and from a tank on the top of the building. The upper floor has the dormitories of the Home. The second floor contains the chapel, with a seating capacity for three hundred persons, music and recitation-rooms, parlors and offices for the matron and the superintendent. The lower floor is devoted to the household affairs of the Home. The entire cost was nearly thirty thousand dollars.

was to be excused if he spoke in the Delaware Indian dialect. This put an end to the Latin quotations.

On the ship Saint Andrew, Oct. 27, 1738, came John Rinehard Bene, who died in Northampton county in 1758. Michael Seider, born March 6, 1709, died Dec. 8, 1783, who settled in Upper Saucon township, then Bucks and now Lehigh county; John Nicholas Stahler, who died in September, 1794 in Northampton county, and George Bibighausen, born Sept. 3, 1708, in Elshof, in Wittgenstein.

The ship Bilander Thistle, Oct. 28, 1738, brought Conrad Merkam, who settled first in Berks county and later in Carbon county.

Peter Steckel, born 1719, settled in Whitehall township, where he died in 1784. His son, Daniel Steckel, died at Bath, Northampton county, aged 101 years and 17 days.

Samuel Eberhard Kopp, born in Lindenfingen, Wurtemberg, Jan. 8, 1700, settled in Bucks county, now Lehigh, where he died March 2, 1757.

On the ship Charming Nancy, Nov. 9, 1738, came Peter Butz, born in 1718, in Hertzogberg, Bavaria. He settled in Berks county and died March 18, 1780.

John Jacob Kuntz, born Feb. 19, 1692, at Niederbronn, Alsace, settled in Berks county. His son, Bernhard Kuntz, born Dec. 3, 1723, died July 14, 1807, settled in Northampton county. They are ancestors of one of our Executive Committee members.

On the ship Samuel, Aug. 27, 1739, came Joseph Biery, from the Canton of Bern, Switzerland, born 1703, who settled in Berks county and died in 1768. Also Casper Doll, born Feb. 2, 1724, died Feb. 4, 1793, in Plainfield township, Northampton county.

The ship Loyal Judith arrived Nov. 25, 1740, with Frederick Wilhelm Nagel, born in 1713, who settled in

LISTING OF INHABITANTS IN 1767
BERKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Allen County Public Library
900 Webster Street
PO Box 2270
Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270

This publication is a listing of all taxable inhabitants living in Berks County in the year 1767.

Berks County townships in existence in 1767, with abbreviations used in this text:

Alb	Albany Township
Als	Alsace Township
Ami	Amity Township
Ber	Bern Township
Bet	Bethel Township
Bre	Brecknock Township
Cae	Caernarvon Township
Col	Colebrookdale Township
Cum	Cumru Township
Dou	Douglass Township
Eas	Eastern District Township
Exe	Exeter Township
Gre	Greenwich Township
Hei	Heidelberg Township
Her	Hereford Township
Lon	Long Swamp Township
Mai	Maiden Creek Township
Max	Maxatawny Township

Ric	Richmond Township
Rob	Robeson Township
Roc	Rockland Township
Rus	Ruscomb Manor Township
Tul	Tulpehocken Township
Uni	Union Township
Wes	Western District Township
Win	Windsor Township

The researcher should be aware that multiple listings of the same name do not automatically mean that there were several individuals by that name living in different parts of the county. Individuals who owned property in more than one township will be listed once for each township in which their property was situated.

LIST OF SOLDIERS

WHO SERVED AS

Rangers on the Frontiers.

1778-1783.

PREFATORY NOTE.

The list of Revolutionary Soldiers which follows is copied from a volume recently discovered of payments made to the individuals noted for services chiefly on the Frontiers as Rangers, between the years 1778 and 1783. As the majority of the names appear more than once upon the list, this is owing to the fact that they were paid for different tours of duty. It is to be regretted that the Company designation is not attached to each individual, for had that been the case the men might have been arranged into companies. No year is given for the specified service.

ating, Anna M. Fairchild, and they are the parents of three children: Hannah F., born September 30, 1885, graduate of Steelton high school, 1905, Bushnell College, 1906. Joseph K., born June 6, 1894, attending Steelton grammar school. Margaret V., born September 11, 1895, also at grammar school. Mrs. Derr is a granddaughter of Solomon Fairchild, whose father—one of three brothers who went west from Connecticut—settled at Nanticoke and was one of the pioneers of Luzerne county. Abraham Fairchild, son of Solomon Fairchild, married Hannah, daughter of Barnett Miller, of New Jersey, and their daughter, Anna M., was born at Nanticoke, and became the wife of John Davis Derr.

BOTTS FAMILY. George Henry Botts, now serving as chief officer of the borough of Penbrook, is a representative of a family of German origin. The founder of the American branch of the race was George Henry Botts, grandfather of the present bearer of that name, and a native of Wurtemburg, Germany, whence he emigrated to the United States. He settled first in Lebanon county, Pennsylvania, on the site where the city of Lebanon now stands, and there followed his trade of shoemaker. Later he moved to Jamestown, and about 1855 took up his abode in Lycoming county, settling on what is now the old John Hayes farm, at No. 3 bridge, where he passed the remainder of his life. He married, while a resident of Dauphin county, Eva Kreiser, and the following children were born to them: John, Peter, Lafayette, Michael, Stephen, Andrew, of whom later; William, George, Sarah, Henrietta, Rebecca, and two others whose names have not been preserved. Of this number the survivors are Michael, Stephen, Andrew and William. George Henry Botts, the father, died in his eighty-seventh year, which he would have completed had he lived until the following Christmas day. His wife died at the age of eighty-seven. Both are buried in the old Lycoming Presbyterian churchyard, at New Berry, now a part of the city of Williamsport.

Andrew Harrison Botts, son of George Henry and Eva (Kreiser) Botts, was born May 9, 1838, near Jonestown, and began life as a teamster, driving for the McKinney Forge Company, in Lycoming county. Afterward he went to learn the business of an iron-worker in the foundry of the old McKinney forge on Lycoming creek. In 1861 he enlisted for three months in the Pennsylvania Volunteers, and at the expiration of his term of service was drafted and served until discharged. After his return home he moved to Crescent and entered the service of the Standard Nail & Iron Company, beginning as a puddler and rising to the position of general foreman, which he held until 1889, when the plant was destroyed by the great flood. Since then he has been engaged in farming, having purchased a small farm of about thirty acres. The name of the place has been changed from Crescent to Powys. His favorite recreations are hunting and fishing, and for his skill in both he bears an enviable reputation. He is a Republican, and a member of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Botts married Anna Mary, born November 2, 1840, in Tioga county, Pennsylvania, daughter of Eugene Ames, and their children were: 1. George Henry, of whom later. 2. Sarah E., born March 26, 1863, of South Williamsport, widow of William Scholvin; children: George H., Laura T. and Frank. 3. Alba A., born June 27, 1866, brakeman on Pennsylvania railroad for one year, being killed January 27, 1889. 4. William M., born 1868, of Northumberland, Pennsylvania, contractor and builder of dams and reservoirs; married Lydia Hopewell, children: Harry and Irene. 5. Fannie, wife of Cyrus Ruch, of Sunbury; children: Gertrude, Alberta and Mary. 6. Felix O., deceased; he was a brakeman on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad and was killed at Allentown. He married Jennie Steimer, children: Andrew S. and Mary E., deceased. His widow married Samuel Wyland, of Harrisburg. 7. Ella, wife of George Fulkrod, of South Williamsport; children: Cora, Raymond, Grace, Mary and Elizabeth.

George Henry Botts, son of Andrew Harrison and Anna Mary (Ames) Botts, was born February 23, 1860, on Beauty Run, in old Lycoming township, Lycoming county, and attended the common schools of Crescent. At the age of thirteen he began to learn the trade of a nailmaker, serving an apprenticeship with the firm of E. G. Heylman, under the instruction of Henry Godchilds. After his term of three years had expired he remained two years longer, learning the machinist's trade. He was then promoted to the position of nailmaker, which he held until 1883, when he resigned and entered the service of the Pennsylvania railroad, beginning as brakeman on a train running between Harrisburg and Renova. He was later made passenger brakeman, then baggagemaster and finally passenger conductor, the position which he now holds. He has been what is known as an "all-round man" for the company, and has filled every position except that of engineer. He is held in high esteem by the traveling public as well as by his neighbors. On June 16, 1897, he brought his family to Dauphin county, and lived at Harrisburg until October, 1899, when he moved to Penbrook. In 1904 he was elected chief officer of the borough of Penbrook for a term of three years. He belongs to Lodge No. 182, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania, and the Patriotic Order Sons of America, of Penbrook. His political principles are those advocated by the Republican party. The family attend the United Brethren church except Wealthey, who is a member of the Church of God, but he himself is a member of the Methodist Episcopal denomination.

Mr. Botts married, July 23, 1885, the Rev. Dr. Silas C. Swallows, pastor of Grace street Methodist Episcopal church, officiating, Laura Eva Weir, and they are the parents of two sons and a daughter: Clyde Henry, born April 11, 1887, at Williamsport, Pennsylvania; he is a member of Washington Camp, No. 477, Patriotic Order Sons of America, of Penbrook. Alba Luther, born February 19, 1889, at Harrisburg, shoecutter, member of same organization as his brother. Wealthey Elizabeth, born October 14, 1892, at Harrisburg, student at grammar school.

Mrs. Botts is a daughter of James Alexander Weir, who was born April 21, 1844. He learned wood-carving and was employed by the John Otto Furniture Company, John E. Du Bois and Casner's frame factory. He is now foreman for the Acme Chair & Furniture factory of Williamsport. He is a Democrat, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Weir married, August 22, 1865, Susan, born February 18, 1844, in Lycoming county, daughter of John and Catharine (Lapp) Grover, the former of Irish and the latter of German extraction. Mr. and Mrs. Weir were the parents of the following children: Laura Eva, born October 14, 1867, at Williamsport, wife of George Henry Botts. John L., of Williamsport, married Mary Roberts, one child, Sybil. Carrie C., died at the age of six years. Wealthey Ann, wife of Herdic Wood, of Williamsport. James Edmund, of Ridgway, Pennsylvania, married Laura Geddes, one child, Kenneth. Herbert A., of over township. He sold this property to William H. Uhlrich and moved to Union Deposit, where for three years he was the proprietor of a hotel, after which, having disposed of his establishment, he purchased land on which he erected a residence and passed the remainder of his life in retirement. He filled the offices of school director and tax collector, and advocated the principles endorsed by the Republican party. He was a member of the United Brethren church.

Jacob Obercash married Julia, born December 25, 1847, daughter of Albert and Susan Hoerner. A sketch of the Hoerner family appears elsewhere in this work. Mr. and Mrs. Obercash were the parents of two children: Margaret, born February 19, 1870; and Michael Albert, of whom later. The former became the wife of Levi Fausnacht, by whom she had three children: Eva, Arthur and one deceased. After the death of her husband she married the Rev. H. S. Kieffer, pastor of the United Brethren church of Halifax, Pennsylvania. Jacob Obercash, the father, died February 2, 1891, and his widow resides with her son at Steelton.

Michael Albert Obercash, son of Jacob and Julia (Hoerner) Obercash, was born on the farm of his maternal grandfather, and was educated in the public schools of South Hanover township and Union Deposit. At the age of sixteen he became clerk in the general store of the Rev. A. M. Kuhns, where he was employed for three years. He then went to Swatara station, where he became a telegraph operator for the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, under the instruction of George Siler, afterward going to York, Pennsylvania, where he was employed by E. K. Hoerner in the bottling business. In 1895 he moved to Steelton and entered the service of his grandfather, Albert Hoerner, as clerk in the Bessemer House. In 1900 he purchased the business and has since been the proprietor. He is a member of the Patriotic Order Sons of America.

Mr. Obercash married, June 14, 1898, the Rev. Yenser, of Marietta, Pennsylvania, officiating, Caroline Worley, and their family consists of two children: Albert W., born June 23, 1900; and Paul H., born July 27, 1903. Mrs. Obercash is a daughter of William Worley, who was born October 23, 1842, in Wittemberg, Germany, and in 1866 emigrated to the United States, landing May 20, 1866, in New York, settled in Hanover, Pennsylvania, where he followed his trade, which was that of a tanner. He was afterward similarly employed in York county, Pennsylvania, and later moved to Marietta, Pennsylvania, where he has since been engaged in the general merchandise business. He is a Republican, and an active member of the Lutheran church, in which he has held office. In 1868 William Wormley married Caroline Craft, born near Baltimore, September 15, 1842, and their children are: William M., of West Fairview, Pennsylvania, married Kate Markley. Caroline, born July 30, 1873, at Hanover, York county, wife of Michael Albert Obercash. Edward J., of Columbia, Pennsylvania, married Mabel Palmer. Mary E., wife of Albert Maryett, of New York. Harry L., unmarried. Anna Marietta, unmarried.

MAURICE OBERLY PUTT, M. D., the only practicing physician at Oberlin, Pennsylvania, was born at Highspire, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, May 25, 1852, son of Dr. Edward J. and Keziah (Oberly) Putt.

He was educated in the public schools of his native borough, and in 1870 entered Lebanon Valley College, at Annville, took a two years course at that institution, and then read medicine with his father. When seventeen years old he entered Bellevue Hospital, New York city, and attended lectures at Bellevue Medical College one term. Later he attended lectures at the College of Physicians and Surgeons at New York; he entered the University of Pennsylvania in 1873, graduating in 1874, and practiced with his father at Highspire until 1876, when he moved to Oberlin, purchased an office and has ever since practiced at that place. He is a member of the Dauphin County Medical Society and has been for twenty years; also a member of the State Medical Society for fifteen years, and of the American Medical Society twelve years. He was physician to the county alms house one year. He attends the Presbyterian church, and in politics is a Republican. Besides his practice, he is interested in various business enterprises, including the Standard Building and Loan Association at Steelton, of which he is a director. He has served as a member of the Oberlin school board, and takes much interest in all that tends to build up the community.

Dr. Putt married, October 22, 1886, Onat Ricksicker, only daughter of the late Levi and Elizabeth (Gormley) Ricksicker, born in 1856, and died May 16, 1895, aged thirty-nine years; she was buried in Mt. Joy cemetery, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. There was no issue by this marriage.

Dr. Edward J. Putt, father of Dr. Maurice O. Putt, was born in Lebanon county, Pennsylvania. He read medicine with Dr. Corby at Schaefferstown, graduating at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and located at Highspire, where he practiced for forty-two years, and died in 1890, aged seventy-two years. He owned several valuable pieces of real estate in that vicinity. In politics he voted the Republican ticket, and in church affiliations was a member of the United Brethren denomination. He married Keziah Oberly, born in Lebanon county, Pennsylvania, in 1831, died in 1904, and was buried at Highspire. Their children were: 1. Augustus Taylor, educated in the Philadelphia schools, and now employed in the Pennsylvania Steel Works; he married and has two children—Percy and Mabel. 2. Dr. Maurice O., whose name appears at head of sketch. 3. Ella Eva, a mute, educated in England in the lip language and converses intelligently.

Bennaville Putt, grandfather of Dr. Maurice O. Putt, was for many years the superintendent of the Harrisburg cemetery; he died at the age of eighty-seven years.

(I) Alexander Sheaffer, the great-great-grandfather of Dr. Maurice O. Putt on the maternal side, was born January 8, 1712, in the Palatinate, Germany. He came to America about 1732, locating in Heidleburg township, subsequently removed to the site now occupied by Scheafferstown, Lebanon county, Pennsylvania. Soon afterwards he laid out the town into regular streets, with a square in the center; he built several houses himself, two of which are still in use. One of these, the Franklin House, was unquestionably built as early as 1740, as there is good evidence to prove it. The other house was on the original Sheaffer farm, and a few years ago was occupied by Squire John Brendel. Some believe this older than the Franklin House, but there is no evidence to substantiate it.

Alexander Sheaffer, in his day, was the embodiment of advanced ideas, with a courage to carry out his convictions. He was a man of great force of character, thrifty and honest. He really was the founder of the first system of water works in the United States. He owned the land upon which a magnificent spring was situated, on an eminence just south of the center of the town. As early as 1758 he sunk wooden pipes in the ground and carried the water up into the town, and here he erected two water-troughs and gave the use of the running water free to all the residents of Market street. Each of these troughs was supplied with an iron nozzle; one of the original nozzles, bearing date of 1758, is in the possession of Miss Matilda Zimmerman, of Schaefferstown. Mr. Sheaffer engaged in mercantile business and made regular trips to Philadelphia. His original receipt book is still in existence, and shows him to have been a splendid penman and very methodical in all his business methods. He acquired nearly all the land around Schaefferstown, and it was mostly disposed of to purchasers on "ground rent." In all the buildings he erected there is evidence that he acquired considerable knowledge of the building trade. The foundations are built on the most substantial plans; it is claimed as a security against the Indians, then occupying that section. Although built over one hundred and fifty years ago, they are still strong and firm. In laying out the town he provided for churches, cemetery and market house.

When West Chester, Norristown, Reading and Harrisburg were yet unknown, this place and vicinity was the residence of a Jewish population, so numerous and wealthy as to have had a synagogue as early as 1732, in which the Scriptures were read by a rabbi. A small graveyard was provided near by. The place was first called Heidleburg-town, derived from Heidleburg township; about 1800 the name was changed to Scheafferstown in honor of its founder. It was here that the eccentric Baron William Henry Steigel built a tower or castle. The tower has passed away, leaving behind only its name, Tower Hill. Tradition says that Baron Steigel entertained George Washington during the time the Baron was making cannons and balls for the Continental army, at Chauncy Forge, several miles below Schaefferstown.

The will of Alexander Sheaffer discloses the interesting fact that he died possessed of over twenty thousand dollars, which was, considering the time, equivalent to a large estate. It was left to the surviving children: Henry, Sabina, Anna Maria, Catharine. A number of the descendants of Alexander Sheaffer are still living in the town, besides others have gone further into the world and won fame and fortune for themselves and their families.

Alexander Sheaffer died April 10, 1786. Married (first) Anna Eva Engle; they had issue: 1. Henry. 2. Sabina, married Michael Hake. 3. Anna Maria, married Christopher Myer. 4. Catharine, married John Myer. 5. Margaret, married John Bright. 6. John, died prior to 1787, married and left several children. 7. Anna Eva, born April 27, 1773, died January 2, 1790. The father married the second time, Catharine Unger, no issue.

(II) Henry Sheaffer, son of Alexander Sheaffer, the American ancestor, by his wife Anna Engle, was born about 1738, in Heidleburg township, then Lancaster, but now Lebanon county. He was reared on a farm, received a good education, became very prominent in the affairs of that locality, and during the revolutionary period his was the predominant spirit and to him the loyal men of the entire community looked for guidance. On March 26, 1776, he was commissioned captain in the Second Battalion of Lancaster County Associators, and was in active service during the campaign of that year. He was appointed a justice of the peace in 1777, by the assembly, and administered the oath of allegiance to about four hundred persons in 1777-78. Among these was his father. He was commissioned as one of the judges of the court of common pleas for the county of Dauphin, at the period of its erection in 1785. He was subsequently appointed one of the associate judges of the county, under the Constitution of 1790, continuing in office until his death, October 12, 1803. As captain of the Eighth Company, Second Battalion of Associators, he took an active part in the revolution. He was in active service during 1776, serving in the battles in the Jerseys and the disastrous battle of Long Island, August 27, 1776. He with others in 1778-79 performed signal service to the Continental army, in hauling supplies to Valley Forge. He was a man of fine presence, of large influence and took a prominent part in public affairs. Aleaxander Sheaffer and his wife Anna (Engle) Sheaffer, Henry Sheaffer and his wife, Anna Eva (Schweitzer) Sheaffer, are all buried in the Reformed church graveyard at Schaefferstown, Pennsylvania.

Henry Sheaffer married (first) Anna Eva Schweitzer, by whom was born the following children: 1. John, born June 15, 1782, died September 25, 1807; married Esther Weiss, and they had a son John. 2. Elizabeth, born October 26, 1776, married Abraham Rex. 3. Maria, married Frederick Oberly. 4. Catharine, married John Bombarger. 5. Susan, born 1786, married Dietrich Goshert. Henry Shaeffer married (second) Elizabeth ———, by whom he had the sixth child, Henry, who married Elizabeth Moyer.

(III) Maria Sheaffer, grandmother of Dr. Putt, was the daughter of Henry Sheaffer, and the granddaughter of Alexander Sheaffer, the American ancestor. She was born and died at Schaefferstown. She married Frederick Oberly, a descendant of the great reformer Oberlin. The issue by this marriage was: 1. Sarah S., born February 20, 1802, died August 14, 1861; married Samuel Young. 2. Arthur. Levi Sheaffer, married Elizabeth Spangler. 4. Rebecca, married John Stump. 5. Elizabeth, married Levi Strohm. 6. Keziah, married Dr. Edward J. Putt, of Highspire, Dauphin county. 7. Caroline, married William R. Willson, Esq., of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, bar. 8. Henry, married Catharine Smith. 9. John, married, removed first to Allegheny county, then to Arkansas, then to Bloomington, Illinois, where he died leaving three children.

(IV) Keziah Oberly, the sixth child of Frederick and Maria (Sheaffer) Oberly, married Dr. Edward J. Putt, and their children were: Dr. Maurice O., whose name appears at the head of this sketch. Augustus. Alice. The mother was born in 1831, died 1904, and was buried at Highspire, Pennsylvania. The spelling of Sheaffer has undergone a number of changes. When searching old documents it is found spelled Sheffer, Shaeffer, Sheaffer, the latter being the way now accepted, although the postal authorities spell it Schaefferstown.

JOHN VALENTINE HIESTAND, deceased, was one of the most prominent business men in Middletown, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, where he was also active in church circles. He traced his descent back to the pioneer settlers of the state.

In the "Colonial Record of Pennsylvania," we find the following account of the founder of this branch of the Hiestand family in America: "Johannus or Johannes Hiestand landed in Philadelphia on the 16th of October, 1727, from the ship "Friendship," with forty-six Palatines, who, with their families, had come from the Palatinate on the invitation of William Penn,

Note: "Salisbury township records are spelled Salsbury and, due to the lucky fact that it was confused with Sadsbury I found it among the lists for the latter township, the only old list from Salisbury I could discover. I have, as yet discovered no old tax lists for the following townships which were in existence in the 1750s: Brecknock, Carnarvon, Cocalico, Colerain, Lancaster, Little Britain & Martic. If I could find these we would have the 1751 assessments of Lancaster Co. Pa. virtually complete. I doubt if they will ever turn up. There are no lists from the townships which have been lost to Dauphin and Lebanon Counties." A. H. G.

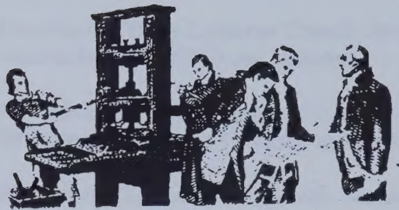
PENNSYLVANIA BIRTHS
Lancaster County
1778–1800

John T. Humphrey



Humphrey Publications
Washington, D. C.

were formed. Researchers must remember that the church, meeting, and pastoral records used for this compilation are those records found within Lancaster County boundaries as they exist in 1996.

Third, the inclusion of birth and/or baptismal information in this compilation does not necessarily mean the infants were born in Lancaster County or that their families even lived there. For example, all of the early births recorded in the St. James Protestant Episcopal Church register were for children born in either York or Cumberland counties, and most of the infants named in the personal register of Rev. Cuthberthson were born and baptized elsewhere.

Fourth, it is important to keep in mind this book is not intended as a substitute source for Lancaster County church, meeting, and pastoral records; rather, it is intended to facilitate access to those records. Family historians who are able to determine that one or several of their ancestors were born in Lancaster County should consult the original record or a transcription of that record to verify information obtained from this text and to gather any additional information.

Church Records

1. Records of the Sadsbury Monthly Meeting, Sadsbury Township; birth records from the 1730s are included.
2. Records of the Little Britain Monthly Meeting, Little Britain Towship; birth records from the 1770s are included.
3. Records of St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church, Lancaster; birth records from the 1750s are included.
4. Records of the Muddy Creek Lutheran Church, East Cocalico Township; the baptismal register was begun in 1733.
5. Records of the Emanuel Lutheran Church, Elizabeth Township, also called Old Warwick Lutheran Church; the baptismal register was begun in 1742.
6. Records of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster; the baptismal register was begun in 1730.
7. Records of the Moravian Church, Lancaster; the baptismal register was begun in 1743.
8. Records of the First Reformed Church, Lancaster; the baptismal register was begun in 1736.
9. Records of Trinity Lutheran Church, New Holland; birth records from the 1730s are included.
10. Records of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Lancaster; births records from the 1770s are included.
11. Records of Zion Lutheran Church, Manheim; the baptismal register was begun in 1771.
12. Records of the Muddy Creek Reformed Church, East Cocalico Township; birth records from the 1770s are included.
13. Records of Bangor Protestant Episcopal Church, Caernarfon Township; birth records from the 1770s are included.

NOTE: "Salisbury township records are spelled Salsbury and, due to the lucky fact that it was confused with Sadsbury I found it among the lists for the latter township, the only old list from Salisbury I could discover. I have, as yet discovered no old tax lists for the following townships which were in existence in the 1750s: Brecknock, Carnarvon, Cocalico, Colerain, Lancaster, Little Britain & Martic. If I could find these we would have the 1751 assessments of Lancaster Co. Pa. virtually complete. I doubt if they will ever turn up. There are no lists from the townships which have been lost to Dauphin and Lebanon Counties." A. H. G.

LANCASTER COUNTY,
Pa.

gill, Daniel Zachary, Thomas How. Deboreaux Bowly, Luke Hinde, Richard How, Jacob Hagen, Sylvanus Grove and William Heron, were the agents appointed to superintend the business. Their attorneys in this country were Samuel Shoemaker, Jacob Cooper and Joshua Howell. In 1762, sales were accordingly effected to the great satisfaction of the occupants of the land, who had generally made considerable improvements, cleared away the wood, and erected comfortable farm-houses, and outbuildings, many of them not being altogether aware of titles; but supposing that they were possessed of a fee simple estate in soil—the prices, however, at which they were held, were not unreasonable; each settler, it is believed, with few exceptions, purchased the tract upon which he was seated. There were a few squatters who were not willing to comply.

The case of Horrabine is still remembered by some of the descendants of the first settlers on the London Lands. One Richard Brazier had squatted in the vicinity of the Slaymakers. Brazier died, left a widow and some money—Horrabine made suit to, and married the widow. He forged a deed for a London tract. The misdating of three days exposed the forgery, and he was tried, convicted, cropped and sent to Honduras Bay to chop logwood. His family was left pennyless.

Conestoga Manor was surveyed for the use of the Proprietary in 1717–1718, as appears from the following order to Jacob Taylor, Surveyor General.

"These are to authorize and require thee without any delay to survey or cause to be surveyed all that tract of land lying between Sasquehannah river and Conestogo creek, from the mouth of said creek as far up the river as the land already granted to Peter Chartier, and then by a line running from the said river to Conestogo creek, all which tract of land for the proper use and behoof of William Penn, Esq., Proprietary and Governor-in-Chief of the said Province, his heirs and assigns forever. Given under our hands, March 1, 1717–1718." The Manor was afterwards divided and sold to purchasers.

This survey included more than 16,000 acres. It was afterwards sold in small tracts and patented. The following were the principal patentees: Israel Pemberton held 300 acres, date of his patent, October 1st, 1723. The Messrs. Wrights own 1,500 acres—date of patent, December 13, 1735—sold afterwards in smaller parcels to John Herr, Andrew Stineman, Daniel Lintner, Jacob Killhaver, Rudy Herr, Jacob Frantz, Godfrey Klugh, Matthew Oberholtzer, Rudy Herr, Jr., John Killhaver, Christian Hershey, Andrew Kauffman. James Pattison, 107 acres, November 21, 1734. James Logan, 700 acres, patent dated July 15, 1737, afterwards held by George Brenner, Philip Brenner, Christian Stouffer, Casper Souter, Adam Fisher, Valentine Rummel, Lawrence Cliffer, Christian Stake. Michael Baughman, 489, Michael Mayer, 131 acres, both same date, February 20, 1738. Michael Mayer, sen., 217 acres patent dated October 16, 1737. Abraham Steiner, 63 acres, May 3, 1740. John Wistler, 167 acres, July 3, 1741. Jacob Kuntz, 166; Anna Ottila Betty Koffer, 166: Jacob Hostetter, 475; John Shank, 197 acres, patent dated July 30, 1741. Edward Smout, 113 acres, June 21, 1743. Michael Baughman, 339, May 28, 1752. Abraham Hare, 424, April 22, 1751. Jacob Wistler, 125; Valentine Miller, 140, both May 25, 1756. Martin Funk, 237, December 18, 1758. Jacob Wistler, 202, Jacob Shuck, 185, August 18, 1759. Abraham and John Miller, 89; Valentine Haith, 29; Robert Beatty, 226, February, 1760. Samuel Herr, 247; John Keagy, 188; Henry Funk, 150; Jacob Wistler, 173; Ludwich and Frederick Ziegler, 209, June, 1760. John Witmer, 77; Abraham Miller, 204: Rudolph Herr, 176; Jacob Witmer, 77, November, 1761. James McMaster, 247, April, 1761. Philip Ulweiler, 39; Benjamin Miller, 220: David Hare, Jr., 94; Peter Snyder, 86; Henry Atkinson and Adam Bigging, 49; Peter Witmer, 132, dated 1763.

John Miller, 60, January 19, 1764. John Newcomer, 109; Joseph Nelson, 109; Jacob Wisler, 178; Mary Wright, 119, dated 1767. John Kendrick, 558; James Pratt, 232, 1768; Henry Buckley, 150, 1769. William Wright, 257, 1770. Ulrich Rebur, 232; John Manning, 165, 1772. Jacob Ashleman, 340, 1774. Indian Town, 414; Blue Rock, 800 acres. We omitted fractions of acres.

"Thomas Penn estimated the value of Conestogo Manor, being 65 miles from the city of Philadelphia, 13,400, at £40 per hundred acres, £5,360, Pennsylvania currency. There is no date to the paper from which we made the extract."—Sparks' Franklin, III. 553.

"The settlement of the Ferrees and Lefevres, received a considerable augmentation about this time. The promising fruitfulness of the country, beside other advantages, attracted settlers; among them are the names of Slaymaker, Witmer, Lightner, Eschelman, Herr, Hershey, Espenshade, Baer, Groff, Graaf, Zimmerman, Koenig, Keneagy, Denlinger, Beck, Souder, Becker, Ream, and many others.

A settlement was also commenced in the interior of the county; Hans Graaf located at the head of a small stream, known by the name of Grove's Run, in West Earl township.[1] He was joined next year by Mr. Wenger, one of whose grand-sons, Joseph Wenger, occupies the Homestead.

From and after 1718, settlements, in their incipient stages, had been pretty general throughout the greater part of the county. The Mill Creek settlement, and others, were commenced about the year 1719, or 20.

About the year 1708, Alexander Mack, of Shriesheim, and seven others in Schwarzenau, Germany, met in a religious capacity; from which society, arose, what is well known, the Tunkers, or First Day German Baptists; and who, though apparently inoffensive, were made subjects of persecution, and were driven by force of oppression into Holland, some to Creyfels, and the mother church voluntarily removed to Serustervin, in Friesland, and thence emigrated to America, in 1719, and dispersed to different parts

[1] "Hans Graaf fled from Switzerland to Alsace, with one of his brothers, about the year 1695 or 96; he came to Germantown, where he remained for a short time; afterwards settled on Grove's Run, in Earl township, both of which were named in honor of him. The following circumstance, as related to us by one of his lineal descendants, will show the reader how Graaf was led to settle in Graaf's Thal; for this is the name by which the settlement is known to this day:

His horses having strayed from Pequea; while in pursuit of them in a northern direction from the inhabited parts, he discovered a fine spring in a heavily timbered spot; the head of Grove's Run. In this elysian dale, said he, will I fix my permanent abode. He nevertheless pursued his horses till he found them, and returned to Pequea. A short time afterwards he made a disposition of his effects. Now he returned to the spring, and about one-half mile down, on the north side, he erected a cabin under a large White Oak tree, in which he, his wife and an only child, stayed all winter. In the spring of the year, having secured by a warrant, dated November 22, 1717, a large tract of land, he erected a house near the cabin. The spot where he erected the house in the spring of 1718, is still pointed out by his progenitors. At this time, as was common with the aborigines in all the new settlements, the Indians called frequently at his house to sell baskets and Hickory brooms. Mr. Graaf had six sons; as soon as some of them were grown up, he turned his attention to dealing in blankets, and other articles of merchandise, which he procured at Philadelphia, and took them to Harris's Ferry, on the Susquehanna, and exchanged them for skins, furs and the like.

He spoke, it is said, the Indian language fluently. When one of the sons drove, the old gentleman accompanied him, riding a fine steed, for he kept none but fine horses. On one occasion, as his team was returning to Philadelphia, Peter, the oldest, was driving; in crossing the Brandywine, which was very flush at the time, he was in danger of a watery grave; the father on a lofty steed, rode in, took the young fellow on his own horse behind him, and seizing the lines, drove safely through the rushing stream.

He had six sons, Peter, David, the grandfather of John Graaf our informant, John, Daniel, Marcus and Samuel, who was known as Graf der Jaeger, the huntsman.

Hans Graaf, after having served his day and generation, the public also on several occasions, and having divided his land among his sons, died, leaving a large family connection. Perhaps there is no family in the county, more numerous, respectable and useful citizens than the Graafs. So, without doubt, the magistrates and inabitants of Lancaster county thought, when they met to settle upon the bounds and give names to townships, June 9, 1729: they had regard to the worth of this family in calling one of the townships, after the first settlers Graaf, i. e. Earl township."—Rupp.

THE TAX RECORDS

The following information on the individual tax records used is included in this index to help make the researcher aware of the names of the collectors of the records included and of any other information that might have been included which we were not able to include in the index itself. In most cases this is only minor, but we felt that it would be of interest and perhaps in certain cases very helpful. In certain cases little information is available.

Many of the lists of this period began with the following printed heading (some are handwritten, some have no such heading):

"To (name of the collector) Collector of (township inserted here)

You being appointed Collector of the within Tax, are hereby required to demand of the Persons within mentioned, the several Sums wherewith they stand charged. But if any think themselves aggrieved with what they are rated, acquaint them that the Day of Appeal is the (date) Day of (month, followed by the place).

But if you cannot meet with the Person of whom Demand is to be made, leave Notice in Writing with some of the Family, or at the Place of their last Abode, signifying the Day of Appeal; at which Time you are to attend with this Duplicate, and the Names of such Persons in your District as You find omitted herein. Fail not at your Peril. Dated the (date) Day of (month) Anno Domini, 175( )"

The dates of appeal varied and were held at the Court House in Lancaster or at the tavern of Mathias Slough. There are those lists from time to time that mention a person who felt his taxes were too high.

BART--The first record is for 1751, taken by John Lingerfield (also Lingfeild). The next record available was for the year 1754. This was taken by William Laughlin. Bart was erected from Sadsbury and the records are mostly Scotch-Irish names, with a few Quakers and Germans.

BETHEL--The first record here is apparently for 1750, although the date is hard to read. It was apparently taken by Constable Martin Crom (perhaps Martin Krem in the list, although more likely Martin Cromer who appears in the following year) as his name appears under the notation "Return of Bathel Township". At the end of this list is a separate notation: "More setlers of Bathel Township which came In afther wards." Nine men are listed and these are noted with a similar comment line in the index. The next available year is 1751, taken by Henry Sowder. It is interesting to note that Martin Cromer's name is crossed off as the collector and Sowder's is inserted instead. We felt it necessary to include the 1756 list for Bethel Township also as it contains some extremely interesting information. The Colonial Indian Wars were taking their toll on the area and this is quite apparent in this particlar record. The collector was the constable of the township. The notation is found at the end of the list:

Confirmands & Communicants

[At this point Henry Ernest Muhlenberg began using a chart form for entering the confirmands and communicants, apparently to save space and time entering. Following is a key that he devised and wrote in his hand to clarify abbreviations in the communicant records. This key is found on page 284.]

[KEY]

Notes on the abreviations in the following Register

W - stands for the dwelling place either in Lancaster or the suburbs, or

B - the bush [back country]

K - children that have not yet been confirmed or are perhaps under 12 years

0, P, M, W, - indicates the time, on Ostern [Easter], Pfingstf [Pentecost], Michaelis [St. Michaels] or Weinacht [Christmas]

pr. - means privately

After 1785 in the space, numbers may stand, which as much as one can be sure, to denote characteristics. The key remains a coded secret.

A "+" after the letter indicates the person was confirmed at that time.

The researcher might further assume that this Anna Maria was a member of the Boeshaar family by birth when, in fact, she is a Boeshaar by marriage—that is, not a Boeshaar blood relative. For proper entry in the main text, her surname at birth would have to be known even though her parents' first names might be unknown. A separate section following the main text lists the married women for whom these kinds of records have been found, but it must be remembered that the linkeage for women listed in this section is to the husband, not the parents.

Four additional elements of critcal concern to genealogical reseachers must be considered:

First, this book is not offered under the pretense of being a "complete" Lancaster County birth record; it is complete only to the extent that records were available for research in 1996. Records are missing, or perhaps were never kept, for some Lancaster County churches. Various county histories, for example, show that ten Presbyterian churches were located in Lancaster County prior to 1800. No extant baptismal records for these ten congregations were found. Likewise, two Catholic congregations were established in Lancaster County, but the only records found were a partial register for St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in the city of Lancaster. Genealogists must also note that several of the early denominations in Lancaster County, namely the Mennonites, the Amish Mennonites, and the German Baptist Brethern, had no tradition of maintaining church records.

Second, Lancaster County boundaries have changed significantly since the county was established in 1729. Portions of Lancacaster County situated west of the Susquehanna River became part of York and Cumberland counties in 1749 and 1750 respectively. Other divisions or separations took place in 1752, 1772, 1785, and 1813 when the counties of Berks, Northumberland, Dauphin, and Lebanon were formed. Researchers must remember that the church, meeting, and pastoral records used for this compilation are those records found within Lancaster County boundaries as they exist in 1996.

Third, the inclusion of birth and/or baptismal information in this compilation does not necessarily mean the infants were born in Lancaster County or that their families even lived there. For example, all of the early births recorded in the St. James Protestant Episcopal Church register were for children born in either York or Cumberland counties, and most of the infants named in the personal register of Rev. Cuthberthson were born and baptized elsewhere.

Fourth, it is important to keep in mind this book is not intended as a substitute source for Lancaster County church, meeting, and pastoral records; rather, it is intended to facilitate access to those records. Family historians who are able to determine that one or several of their ancestors were born in Lancaster County should consult the original record or a transcription of that record to verify information obtained from this text and to gather any additional information.

Finally, I would like to thank the Moravian Church in Lititz for their permission to access information from the early registers of the congregation.

About the year 1790 there flourished among the residents of Bethel township, on the borders of Berks County, a noted swindler named George Savin, alias Greene. He was a man of talent, possessed a winning address, and was a thorough master in quick and correct discernment of character, which enabled him for a long time to prey upon the purses of his credulous neighbors with impunity. The following extract from 2d Yeates' Reports will explain the character of his swindling operations:

"At Nisi Prius, at Harrisburg—October Assizes, 1798, before MESSRS. YEATES and SMITH, Justices. ABRAM STOUT against RANDOLPH RASSEL.

"Special action in the case. The plaintiff declared that whereas George Savin, alias Green, was indebted to him in £100, the defendant, in consideration that the plaintiff promised to accept him as his debtor in the room of the said George Savin, alias Green, on the 2d of July, 1790, promised to pay him the said £100 within six weeks from that time or sooner, nevertheless, etc., non assumpsit. The evidence on the trial turned out as follows:

"Savin was an artful swindler, and gulled a number of ignorant persons to deliver him divers sums of gold and silver, under a pretence that he would double the amount by some chemical process in a short period. He first received, as if reluctantly, some small sums, and delivered to the adventurers in his bank (so called), a few days afterwards, genuine Spanish dollars, apparently new, doubling the sums paid him. When his fame was sufficiently known, and the avarice of the weak people in the neighborhood highly inflamed, he soon got into his custody considerable sums, and then decamped privately in the night from his haunt,—a retired place twelve miles from Reading, and concealed himself in Dauphin, now Lebanon County. To his latter hiding-place he was pursued by the plaintiff and one Francis Umbehocker, two of his dupes, who offered a reward for apprehending him. The person whom they made use of for this purpose ingeniously held out to the defendant the lure of having £200 in specie at home, ready to be put into Savin's bank, if he should come to his house and receive it for multiplication. Some strong suspicious circumstances were shown against the defendant as being in connection with Savin. The latter first came to the house, in pursuance of the scheme, about ten o'clock at night of the 2d of July, 1790. The plaintiff and Umbehocker lay concealed in the barn, and were notified of Savin's presence. On their appearance Savin was alarmed, and desired them to walk upstairs with him. On a signal given the defendant also appeared, and some altercation occurred; but afterwards, on being informed of their respective demands, he became security for Savin's appearance at his house the next morning before day. Thither they all came on the 3d of July, 1790, and defendant promised to pay the plaintiff his demand against Savin, £100, within six weeks from that time, or sooner; and as Savin owed to Umbehocker, $303.11, to pay him $100 down, and the residue on the Tuesday following, at the same house in Dauphin County. Whereupon Savin was set at liberty. Verdict pro quer for £149 17*s.* 6*d.* damages. Messrs. Clymer and Reed pro quer., Messrs. Ingersoll, Hopkins, and Fisher pro def. A motion was afterwards made for a new trial, and a rule to show cause obtained; but the argument coming on in December term, 1799, the defendant's counsel discharged the rule."

FREDERICKSBURG.

Fredericksburg was laid out in 1754 by Frederick Stump, whose father, Christopher Stump, took up land in that locality at a very early date. It was called by him "Nassau," but in all the references thereto, even the early assessment-lists, it is designated as Stump's Town. The lots were sold or leased on ground-rents, at least those held by Joseph Siman, who seems to have been in all manner of speculation, whether as an Indian trader or as an investor in real estate. It is probable Frederick Stump was either indebted to Siman for money borrowed, and

LUTHERAN AND REFORMED

BINDNAGEL'S

North Londonderry Township.

The Lutheran congregation dates from the 1730s.

Lutheran Pastors: Casper Stoever, until his death in 1779; Frederick Melsheimer, 1779-c1784; Casper Hoerner, 1787-c.1794; George Lochman, c1795

The Lutheran congregation is known as Bindnagel's, two miles north of Palmyra.

Sources:
Records of Bindnagle Church, near Palmyra... By E.W.S. Parthemore, comp. Harrisburg: 1866.
"The Bindnagel Church," by John W. Early, Lebanon County Historical Society Papers 1 (1898): 57-70.
Egle published early marriages, baptisms, and tombstone inscriptions (Egle, pp. 221-222).

CAMPBELLTOWN

The Lutheran congregation is first mentioned in the synod minutes of 1794. Its records cover the years 1794-1889.

Lutheran Pastors: George Lochman, 1794

The Reformed congregation is now called Salem United Church of Christ. It probably dates from the time of the Lutheran congregation, but is first definitely mentioned in 1820. There are no early records for the Reformed congregation.

Sources:
Lutheran Register, on MF at the LAC, Philadelphia.
Notes and Queries, Annual Volume 1898 (1899). By William H. H. Egle, pp. 132-135, 137-140, 147-151.

FREDERICKSBURG (also called STUMPTOWN and NEWTOWN)

The Lutheran congregation was mentioned in a deed of 1766, about the time the church was built.

Lutheran Pastors: Casper Stoever; Peter Mischler; Emanuel Schultze, 1774-1783; William Kurtz, 1783-1799

The Reformed congregation probably dates from about 1766, as it used the same building as the Lutherans. The congregation was considered to be a successor to the one at Swatara.

Reformed Pastors: Conrad Bucher, 1770-1780; William Runkel, 1780-1784; Lewis Lupp, 1785-1798

Both congregations are known as St. John's, and both are located in Fredericksburg.

Sources:
Lutheran Register, for "Stumpstown," was begun in 1774; the translation is at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg.

GRUBBEN

South Lebanon Township

Salem Lutheran Church may date from as early as 1747. (Egle gives c.1733/5 as the date).

Lutheran Pastors: John Casper Stoever; Frederick Augustus Muhlenberg, 1773-1775; William Kurtz, 1775-1794; George Lochman, 1794-1815

The Reformed congregation probably dates from the same time.

Reformed Pastors: Conrad Templeman, c.1750-1759; John Waldschmidt, c.1760

SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP.

JOHN F. BECK (Commissioner of York County) was born August 16, 1829, in York, Penn. He attended the York schools one winter, and at the age of nine years, went to Loganville, where he received two winters' schooling. He worked three years at the carpenter trade. January 15, 1852, Mr. Beck married Matilda Leader, of York Township. This marriage was blessed with the following children: Mary Catharine, Charles F., Milton G., Franklin J., Paul J., Emma A., Harry C., Martha J. and Harvey G. Mr. Beck has at various times held township offices—school director, auditor, etc. In 1884 he was elected one of the commissioners of York County, and it is not too much to say that the office was never held by a more worthy and upright citizen than John F. Beck. He comes from good German ancestry, who were among the early settlers of York County.

JOHN F. BOPP, farmer, son of John Bopp, Jr. and Barbara (Folkenstein) Bopp, was born August 3, 1827. Our subject was the eldest of eight children: John F., Leah, Sarah, Catharine, Henry (deceased), Israel (deceased), Peter and Jesse. August, 1850, Mr. Bopp married Maria Allison, of Springfield Township. There were born to them by this marriage: Uriah, Jacob (deceased), George (deceased), Emanuel, Amos, Malinda (deceased), Emma, Jesse, William, Elizabeth and Barbara. May 2, 1865, Mr. Bopp married Priscilla Allison, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Reichard) Allison, of Springfield Township; to this union were born John (deceased), Peter (deceased), Ella M. (deceased), Levina, Taby and Eli. Mr. Bopp is a member of the Reformed Church, has been school director three terms, and is one of the most successful farmers of Springfield Township. For the past fifteen years he has been a director of the First National Bank of Glen Rock, and is also a director in the Codorus & Manheim Fire Insurance Company, of York County, having been elected for a term of three years.

HENRY BOTT, son of Peter and Elizabeth (Zeigler) Bott, was born in West Manchester Township, in September, 1818. He was reared on his father's farm. Mr. Bott married Sarah A. Zeigler, daughter of John E. and Barbara (Kohler) Zeigler (see Israel Zeigler's sketch for history of the Zeigler family). Five children blessed their marriage: W. W., Martin L., Henry C., John (deceased) and Rose E. (deceased). Mr. Bott's ancestors came very early to York; his great-grandfather came to York from Germany, long before the Revolutionary war. The subject of this sketch came to Springfield Township in 1855, and engaged in the mercantile business at Smyser's Station; has also been the agent for the Northern Central Railroad, at this point, for twenty years, having turned over the agency to his son, W. W. Bott, about ten years ago. Mr. Bott is a prominent member of the Lutheran Church of Seven Valleys.

DAVID Y. BRILLHART, one of the successful farmers of Springfield Township, was born in that township, March 3, 1855. His ancestors were among the earliest settlers of York County. His parents were Jacob and Rebecca (Yost) Brillhart, residents of Springfield Township. Mr. Brillhart has been a resident of Springfield Township all his life, and engaged in agricultural pursuits, in which occupation he has been exceedingly prosperous. His farm, which contains over 200 acres of superior land, is well improved. He is also the owner of a valuable ore mine, which bears his name. Mr. Brillhart was united in marriage, January 26, 1879, with Miss Mary Alice Herbst, a daughter of Jacob and Julia (Diehl) Herbst, of Hopewell Township. Four children have been born to them—Jacob, Rebecca (deceased), David and Charles.

REV. CHARLES M. EYSTER, pastor in charge of the Lutheran Church, Seven Valleys, is the son of John and Susan (Eisenhart) Eyster, and was born December 21, 1857, in Jackson Township. Rev. Eyster attended the normal school at East Berlin, Penn., also Eastman's Business College at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and took a full course at the Pennsylvania College and Theological Seminary, at Gettysburg, Penn. Although quite a young man in the ministry, his first charge was a very important one. The Eyster family were among the very earliest settlers of York County. It is claimed by this family, that their ancestors were the first white people that settled in West Manchester Township, in the vicinity of Wolf's Church, about five miles from York.

MARTIN FEIGLEY (deceased), was born in Springfield Township, December 4, 1831. His grandfather, Peter Feigley, was also a native of this township, and his great-grandfather settled in this township when a young man, thus making the Feigley family one of the pioneer families of York County. Mr. Feigley married Ellen Reichard, daughter of George and Liddie Reichard, of York Township. This marriage was blessed with nine children: Lucy R., Levi R., Katie R., Ellen R., Lizzie R., Martin R. John R., Sarah R. and Peter R. The large ore bank, known as Feigley Ore Bank (see mining interests of York County), was purchased by Mr. Feigley, in 1867, over 30,000 tons of hematite ore have already been taken from this mine. Mr. F. has been a successful farmer, in connection with his mining business; was school directer for a number of years. The Feigleys are members of the Brethren or German Baptist denomination.

WILLIAM FOUST, son of John S. and Rebecca (Erhman) Foust, was born April 25, 1836, in Shrewsbury Township. He was reared on his father's farm, and followed farming and distilling until 1860, when he began distilling for himself at Foust's distillery, which he rebuilt after taking possession himself. March, 1859, Mr. Foust married Henrietta Bricker, daughter of John and Christina (Zeller) Bricker, of York County. Eight children were born to this marriage: John Q. A., Luther, William, Robert, Frederick, Maggie Jane, Estelia May and an infant deceased. Mr. Foust is a member of the Lutheran Church. Few men are better known throughout York and adjoining counties than "Billy Foust."

PHILIP GLATFELTER (deceased), son of Philip and Anna M. (Emig) Glatfelter, was born in 1820, in Springfield Township. September 19, 1841, Mr. Glatfelter married Catherine Geiselman, of Springfield Township, daughter of George and Catherine (Erhart) Geiselman. This union was blessed with twelve children: Edward (deceased), George (deceased), William (deceased), Robert, Elenora (deceased), Emma, Jestie, Sarah, Mollie, Rosa, Lillie and Mahala. Mr. Glatfelter was a member of the Lutheran Church.

DEITRICK HILDEBRAND, second of four children of Casper and Susanna (Ness) Hildebrand, was born November 10, 1831, in Loganville, Springfield Township. He was reared on his father's farm, and went to his trade (shoe-making) when fifteen years old, and has always followed this occupation; has been justice of the peace seventeen years. April 8, 1858, Mr. Hildebrand married Anna Maria Leader, daughter of Charles and Sarah (Hildebrand) Leader, of Springfield Township. Three children have blessed this union: Charles G., Annie and Robert. Our subject's grandfather was Casper Hildebrand. His grandmother's maiden name was Cranmer, and it is worthy of mention about this family that the seven he assisted his father in the store, then became his partner, and is now his successor in business, and is doing a prosperous trade. In 1882 he was appointed postmaster at Hall.

WEST MANCHESTER TOWNSHIP.

JACOB ALDINGER was born February 22, 1833, and is a son of Frederick and Elizabeth (Myers), late of Sprinfield Township, formerly of Heidelberg Township. Subject's great-grandfather, Matthias Aldinger, who died in Germany, was of royal descent. On account of the persecutions of the family by Napoleon, the grandfather of our subject, after being driven up and down the Rhine from 1814 to 1817, succeeded in making his escape to America. He was the father of seven children: Margaret, Barbara, Frederick, Frederica, Elizabeth, Christiana and Louisa, all natives of Germany. The father of our subject had born to him eight children: John, Emanuel, Jacob, William, Daniel (deceased), Barbara, Matthias and Abraham. Our subject, a minister of the Old German Baptist Church, commonly called the Dunkard, was married, October 29, 1854, to Elizabeth, daughter of John and Lydia Sprenkle, of West Manchester Township, and to this union have been born three children: Samuel, Annie and Lydia. Mr. Aldinger is the owner of a fine farm of 217 acres in West Manchester, improved with two fine dwellings, a large bank barn and other out-buildings, also a tract of thirty-one acres in North Codorus Township, and also five acres in building lots at Brillhart's Station, in York Township. Mr. Aldinger has served York Township several years as school director.

J. L. BAER, Baer's Station, is a son of John H. and Malinda (Lau) Baer, of West Manchester Township, and was born February 20, 1854, in West Manchester Township. He was reared on his father's farm, and his time was divided between farm work and attending the public schools of the township. He also went several terms to Prof. Ruby's York County Academy. November 10, 1878, he married Martha J. Sprenkle, daughter of Peter and Matilda Sprenkle, of West Manchester Township. Two children have been born to this marriage: Katie and Erwin. He began general merchandising at his present location (Baer's Station, of Frederick Division of Pennsylvania Railroad), March 1, 1879. He is thoroughly familiar with its details, and well calculated for the business in which he is engaged. Mr. Baer's great-grandfather, David Baer, was born April 11, 1780; died October 16, 1831. His great-grandmother, Maria Baer, was born June 29, 1772; died November 4, 1868. They lived on the same homestead on which his father now lives. His grandfather was born October 27, 1805; died June 10, 1845. He lived in the conjugal state seventeen years, and begat two sons and four daughters. His wife, Mary, was born February 14, 1800; died July 10, 1849. His father, John H. Baer, was born February 4, 1832; married O. Malinda Lau (born February 8, 1833) the 12th of May, 1853. He is the father of nine children—three sons and six daughters: J. L. Baer (born February 20, 1854), Rose Ellen (September 28, 1855), Kate (October 30, 1858), Clara Ann (September 26, 1860), George L. (May 19, 1862), Ida V. (April 17, 1864), Annie (September 2, 1865), Lillie May (January 15, 1867), Harvey L., (April 3, 1870). George L. died September 12, 1863; Lillie May, July 22, 1868, Annie, December 23, 1870.

PETER BOTT, Sr., was born August 31, 1801, and is the son of Peter and Elizabeth (Zeigler) Bott. The grandfather of our subject, John Bott, of Germany, was father of four children: Eve, Susanna, Elizabeth and Peter, all born in West Manchester Township. Our subject's father, Peter Bott, had born to him nine children: Jacob, Peter, John, Adam, William, Henry, Mary, Eliza and Mary. The father of Mrs. Peter (Zeigler) Bott was Killian Zeigler, a native of Germany, who came when young to West Manchester Township. Peter Bott, our subject, was married November 9, 1826, to Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Smyser, of this township, and to him have been born ten children, viz.: Michael (married to Louisa, daughter of George Julius), Louisa (wife of Samuel Menough), Sarah (wife of Peter Yost), Eliza A. (wife of William Smyser); Caroline (wife of John Smyser), William H. (married to Lucy Hoke), Anna M. (wife of Joseph Martin), Peter J. (married to Sarah Hoke), Alice A. (wife of Dallas Julius) and Edward C. Our subject, at the age of eighty-four, is leading a retired life on his homestead of ten acres. The family are members of the Lutheran Church.

WILLIAM H. BOTT is the son of Peter and Elizabeth (Smyser) Bott, natives of West Manchester Township, and was born January 23, 1841. He was married, December 9, 1871, to Miss Lucy, daughter of Michael Hoke, of old Manchester Township, and has had born to him four children: Flora K., Harvey H. (deceased), Minnie M., Lucy E. and William E. Mr. Bott is an agriculturist, and the owner of three farms, to-wit: his homestead of 223 acres, improved with fine buildings and extra large bank barn; another of 126 acres, well improved and cultivated, and a third in North Codorus Township, also well improved with first class buildings and very productive. Mr. Bott was drafted in the first draft of the late war, but paid $350 for a substitute; he afterward enlisted in Company B, Seventy-eighth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and served to the end of the war. Mr. Bott is a member of the Lutheran Church, and his family of the German Reformed.

ABRAHAM GENTZLER, farmer, son of Jesse and Eliza (Zorbach) Gentzler, eldest of nine children, was born November, 1836, in North Codorus Township; he was reared on a farm and has always followed farming. October, 1859, he married Sarah Josephs, daughter of Henry Josephs, of Paradise Township. Seven children have blessed this union: Charles A., John H. (deceased), Katie (deceased), Henry F., Milton, infant (deceased) and Martin. Our subject's grandfather, Conrad Gentzler, was a native of York County and always lived in North Codorus Township, so that the Gentzler family is one of the oldest families in York County. The subject of this sketch is an industrious, progressive farmer; he has a thorough knowledge of farming and has farmed for the Hokes for the past eighteen years.

JACOB F. GLATFELTER, farmer, son of Charles and Louisa (Fishel) Glatfelter, of Spring Garden Township, was born August 23, 1835, in Spring Garden Township, where he was reared on his father's farm; he always followed farming. January 23, 1859, Mr. Glatfelter married Margaret Hyde, who bore him four children: infant (deceased), Charles H., Clara E. and Willie J. Margaret (Hyde) Glatfelter was the daughter of Joshin and Lydia (Wire) Hyde, of West Manchester Township. February 5, 1884, our subject married Maria Hamme, daughter of Frederick and Margaret (Gentzler) Hamme, of Manchester Township. Mr. Glatfelter is the owner of an excellent farm of 121 acres, about five miles from York, in Manchester Township. He has lived on this farm since 1859.

The records of the borough council from 1787 to 1848 could not be found, possibly they are lost. The following is a list of names of the chief burgesses in the order of succession since 1848: R. C. Woodward resigned March 17, 1849; Francis Koch succeeded until May 1849; Jacob Barnitz, elected May 12, 1849; David G. Barnitz, 1850; Daniel Kraber, 1851–52–53; Abraham Forry, 1854–55–56; Peter McIntyre, 1857; Abraham Forry, 1858–59; Henry Lanius, 1860–61; David Small served from 1862 to 1871; Daniel Stillinger, 1871; John M. Deitch, 1872–73–74; Jere Carl, 1875–76; F. C. Polack, 1877; Jere Carl, 1878; Henry J. Gresly, 1879.

Alexander Duncan, 1880; Francis M. Dick, 1881; Henry J. Gresly, 1882; Luther A. Small, 1883-84; George W. Heiges, 1885. The borough council for the year 1885, is as follows: First Ward, William A. Mitzel and William Whare; Second Ward, Jacob Kuehn and W. H. Lanius; Third Ward, H. C. Adams and Jonathan Owen; Fourth Ward, Luther A. Small and Jacob Stager; Fifth Ward, A. H. Seiffert and Mr. Kottkamp; Sixth Ward, Henry Heffner and Eli Sprenkle; Seventh Ward, John Zimmerman and Frank R. Stenger; Eighth Ward, John Allen and A. Steckler; Ninth Ward, G. W. Bell and Charles Denues; John H. Gibson, clerk to council; Frederich Zorger elected high constable in 1863 has held the same office continuously to date.

Dr. W. J. McClure is health officer.

The first government census was taken in 1790 when York had a population of 2,076; in 1800 it had 2,503; in 1810, 3,201; in 1820, 3,545; in 1830, 4,772; in 1840, 5,480; in 1850, 6,963; in 1860, 8,605; in 1870, 4,301; in 1880, 13,971. Since the census of 1880 was taken, three densely populated sections have been added to the borough, thus causing a great increase of population which at present, 1885, is not less than 20,000.

The number of taxable inhabitants in 1883 was 4,444. The valuation of real estate for the same year was $6,844,725.

ANNEXATIONS.

About the year 1814 a considerable addition (but within the limits of the borough) was made to the town of York. The heirs of John Hay, deceased, owning sixty acres and some perches in the northern part of the borough, laid the same out into lots after the manner of the rest of the town, extending the streets and alleys north through the tract and laying out an entirely new streeet (called Water Street, the second of the same name) running nearly east and west. The lots were sold by the heirs to the highest bidders, and the amount of the sum received therefore was $25,000.

The area of the borough remained unchanged for more than half a century.

On May 7, 1883, by an action of the court of common pleas, 142 acres and 130 perches situated south of the town, belonging to Spring Garden Township, were annexed to the borough. This is now rapidly improving, and at the time of its annexation contained a large number of handsome residences. The western annex, including an area of 424 acres and seventy-two perches, belonging to West Manchester Township, became a portion of the borough April 21, 1884. The northeastern annex, containing an area of forty acres and 109 perches, was added to the borough January 16, 1885.

The West End Improvement Company was chartered December 15, 1884, with a capital of $70,000. Its officers are: President, Capt. William H. Lanius; treasurer, C. S. Weiser; secretary, Smyser Williams; directors, Edwin Brillinger, Frank Geise, E. R. Herr, David Rupp, John Fahs, R. H. Shindel, W. H. Lanius, D. K. Trimmer and Smyser Williams. Capt. Lanius purchased several tracts of land which were laid out with streets, and many fine dwelling houses built. This was admitted into the borough with the "western annex," which included Bottstown and Smysertown.

There are a number of suburban homes noted for their beauty and comfort. Among them are "Brockie," residence of the late Judge Black, "Willow Bridges," the home of Lieut.-Gov. Chauncy F. Black, and the delightful summer residences of George and W. Latimer Small, and A. B. Farquhar.

BOTTSTOWN.

In the year 1750, on the 9th day of August, Hermanus Bott obtained a patent from the honorable proprietaries of Pennsylvania, John Penn and Richard Penn, for 297 acres of land, west of the Codorus Creek, adjoining the town of York, in the township of Manchester. He was an industrious farmer, having emigrated from Germany a few years before and purchased a lot in York. In 1753 he conceived the idea of planning a town west of York, which was then but a small village. A survey was made of a portion of Bott's tract, and about fifty lots were laid out. The main highway of the town was called King Street, and was an extension of High Street (now Market Street) of York. This sturdy German intended really to establish a town to compete with York, and in order to encourage persons to locate in it, offered a title to one lot of ground to any one who would agree to pay "a yearly quit rent of seven shillings and one penny forever, or the value thereof in coin current according to the exchange that shall be between the province of Pennsylvania and the city of London." The lots were sixty-five feet front on King Street (now West Market) and 460 feet long, crossing an alley. All the rights to quit rent on the south side of the street were afterward purchased by Mathias Smyser. The person obtaining a lot was required "to erect a substantial dwelling house twenty feet square, with a good chimney of brick or stone, to be laid in with lime and sand and to be built within the space of two years from the time the deed was executed." Some of Bott's deeds were printed at the "New Printing Office of H. Miller and S. Holland at Lancaster," and bear date of March, 1763. Many of the first houses erected were of logs—a few of them are still standing. Bottstown, after an existence of 130 years, finally, after repeated attempts and invitations, was in the year 1884 annexed to the borough of York. It then had a population of about 300. It took 100 years for its population to double. W. H. Bond for many years has kept the leading store. At the time of the annexation, there were a number of handsome residences.

BOTTSTOWN IN 1783.

A census of Bottstown was taken in the year 1783 by the township assessor. There were then 151 inhabitants. The names of the property holders were Peter Lint, joiner, Michael Wise, Gotlieb Reicherd who owned four horses, Jeremiah Shriack, Gabriel Derr, John Ernst, hatter; Mathias Detter, innkeeper; Andrew Wyer, Peter Engelmor, Martin Hap, John Haller, Henry Cunningham, Frederick Horn, baker; widow Hoke, John Detter, saddler; John Kortz, tobacconist; Robert Bailey, gunsmith; Alexander Brown, hosier; Frederick Rothrock, saddler, Andrew Sneider, Robert Lewis, Jacob Bott, son of the founder of the town owned eleven acres of land, one horse, one cow and six sheep and had a family of eight persons; Philip Rothrock, Philip Hoffman, Martin Bauer, George Fink, Nicholas Reisinger, Frederick Roemer, Frederick Eichelberger and Mathias Ament. The entire property valuation was £2,554 in Pennsylvania currency.

MARKETS.

According to George Stevenson's letter dated 1754 to Richard Peters, secretary of the province of Pennsylvania, giving a description of the town of York, there were then two markets held in the town, which at that time contained 210 dwelling houses. John and Richard Penn, by their lieutenant-governor, Robert Hunter Merris, granted the first chartered privilege of holding markets in the town. The date of their charter for this purpose is recorded as the "eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five. This grant of privilege states that the inhabitants of the town of York, in the new county of York, are become so numerous that they find it necessary to have a public market established within the said town of York, for the better supplying and accommodating them with good wholesome provisions, and other necessaries, under proper regulations." It then, "upon the humble request of the inhabitants of York, grants and ordains that they and their successors shall and may forever thereafter hold and keep within the town, in every week in the year, two market days, the one on Wednesday and the other on Saturday, in such commodious place or places, as is, shall or may be, appointed for that purpose." Another clause of the charter reads thus: "And we do hereby appoint John Meem, of the town of York, to be the first clerk of the market, who, and all succeeding clerks, shall have assize of bread, wine, beer and other things, with all the powers, privileges, and immunities, by law belonging to such office."

The custom of holding markets on Wednesday and Saturday in the center square of York, has been kept up without cessation since 1750. Soon after the completion of the Continental Court House in 1754, near it a market house was built which stood for nearly a century. The present market house, on the eastern part of Center Square, was built by Jacob Dietz in 1842, and that on the western part by Jacob Gotwalt in 1844.

The Farmers Market.—An act of assembly passed on January 31, 1866, with the following-named persons as incorporators: Jacob Baer, John Winter, Israel Laucks, C. F. Winter, John H. Baer. The name of this corporation was entitled "The Farmers' Market of York." The rapid growth of the borough west of Codorus Creek demanded a market house in that section. The caiptal stock was limited to $30,000. At an election held in the store of Christian Bender, on January 14, 1867, a board of managers was chosen consisting of Daniel Kraber, Frederick Baugher, Martin Emig, John Winter, Israel Laucks, Philip Eichelberger and Samuel Smyser. This board soon afterward organized by electing Frederick Baugher, president; Daniel Kraber, secretary and representative families, was born in Spring Garden Township, in 1834. His great-grandfather was a pioneer of the county, a farmer and one of the founders of the Episcopal Church of York, in the church-yard of which he lies buried. His grandfather, William Johnston, was a farmer of Spring Garden Township, where he resided until his death; he was the father of eleven children, two of whom are now living; Mrs. Mary Hantz and Sarah, both residents of York. Samuel Johnston, the father of our subject, was born in Spring Garden Township, where he resided until 1838, when he removed to Jackson Township, where he became a leading farmer and resided until his death, which occurred in 1872. The mother of our subject, Mary Smyser, was a daughter of Michael Smyser, of West Manchester Township, and a descendant of an old family of the county. She was the mother of two children: William S. and Mary (deceased). The mother died in 1857. Our subject was reared upon a farm, and in the field of agriculture he has devoted the entire attention of his life. Mr. Johnston has been a resident of Jackson Township since he was four years of age; he became the manager of the old homestead farm in 1857, and in 1872 he became the inheritor, upon the death of his father. This farm consists of 200 acres of superior land, finely improved, the most of the improvements having been made by our subject; he also owns a tract of land in Codorus Township. Mr. Johnston is one of the solid, substantial citizens of York County; he is enterprising in all matters of public improvement, and one of the esteemed citizens of the county. Mr. Johnston was married, in 1857, to Miss Julia Bott, a daughter of Jacob Bott, of Jackson Township, and of an old family. Three children have been born to them: Sarah Smyser, William Allen (deceased at the age of eighteen) and an infant daughter. The family have always been members of the Lutheran and Episcopal denominations.

M. W. LAU is a native of York County, and was born in West Manchester Township in 1844; his father Michael Lau, was a native of York County, and a farmer of West Manchester Township, until his death. Catherine (Wolf) Lau, mother of our subject, is still living. Our subject was reared on a farm and followed farming for fourteen years, seven years in Paradise and seven in Heidelberg Townships. In 1876 he became the agent of the White Sewing Machine Company, which business he has successfully conducted up to the present writing; he is also the general agent for York County for the Reid Creamery, for which valuable machine he has established a large sale. Mr. Lau became a resident of Spring Grove in 1879, where he has since resided. He assisted materially in the movement for the incorporation of the town, and was one of the first election officers. He has served as councilman since Spring Grove became a borough, was the manager and superintendent of the building of the schoolhouse, and is always a public spirited and progressive citizen. Mr. Lau was married, December 20, 1866, to Miss Lucinda Fishel, daughter of Michael Fishel, of Jackson Township. She died July 14, 1876, leaving three children: Charles K., Henry H. and Minnie K. His second marriage occurred June 1, 1879, when he was united with Miss Elizabeth Ellen Senft, daughter of Isaac Senft, of Codorus Township. They have two children—Luther M. and Paul F. Mr. and Mrs. Lau are members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Mr. Lau has been earnestly identified with his church, and has served as deacon since the organization of the church at Spring Grove.

W. H. LOCKEMAN, dealer in agricultural implements and wagons, who has recently begun business in Spring Grove, is a young man worthy of encouragement, being thoroughly acquainted in the business in which he has embarked. He is a practical machinist, having worked in some of the best shops in the country. He learned the trade of blacksmith with his father, Frederick Lockeman, of York County.

HENRY K. MARKEL is a native of Shrewsbury Township, and was born in 1833. His great-grandfather was a soldier in the war of the Revolution. His grandfather, Martin Markel, was also a resident of York County. His parents, Henry and Catherine (Kunkel) Markel, were natives of York County, and farmers of Shrewsbury Township, where his father died in 1850; his mother still resides there. Our subject was reared upon the farm, and at the age of eighteen learned the shoe-maker's trade at Glen Rock, and followed that occupation five years in his native township. He next learned the carpenter's trade, which he followed fourteen years, learning in the meantime the machine trade at Glen Rock. He then farmed for twelve years in Codorus Township, and in 1881 came to Spring Grove and established a general machine, repair and jobbing shop, and is now doing a successful and remunerative business. Mr. Markel is a skilled general mechanic. He has served as a councilman and assistant assessor of Spring Grove Borough. In 1852 he married Miss Louisa Bailey, of Shrewsbury Township. They have six children living: Elnora, Sarah J., Mary A., William, George and Ida. Mr. and Mrs. Markel are members of the German Reformed Church.

GEORGE MENGES, a successful and representative business man of York County, was born in Jackson Township in 1848. He is descended from two old families of the county, his parents, Andrew and Caroline (Klinepeter) Menges, natives of the County. His father is a farmer, and George, until the age of twenty-five, continued at home as an assistant. He then farmed the homestead for seven years, also extracting iron ore from the beds upon the land. At the expiration of this period he removed to Spring Grove, and embarked upon a more extended field of business, establishing a general trade in coal, lumber, grain, phosphates, etc., in which field he has been eminently successful, and is now enjoying a large patronage. He was the prime mover and worker in securing the incorporation of Spring Grove into a borough, and was the first burgess; he also takes an active interest in the schools and is now serving upon the school board. Mr. Menges has done considerable in building up Spring Grove, and owns several tenement houses and considerable other property, and is recognized as one of the leading citizens and business men of the county. In 1872 he married Miss Amanda Martin, of Jackson Township. They have one child living—Lillie. Mr. and Mrs. Menges are members of the Lutheran Church at Spring Grove.

GEORGE. W. METZGER, M. D., son of Solomon and Rebecca (Bower) Metzger, was born in Manchester Township, February 8, 1855. He attended the common schools until about thirteen years of age, when he entered the Millersville State Normal School, and studied for two years. In 1874 he commenced reading medicine with Dr. J. B. Kain, of Manchester Borough, and was under his instruction for two years; he then entered Jefferson College, Philadelphia, from which he graduated in 1877. The spring of that year he began practice in Jackson Township as successor to Dr. Christian Picking, and has here been very successful, now owning a brick dwelling, with several acres of ground, on the Gettysburgh pike, one and one-half miles west of Thomasville. June, 17, 1877, he married Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Abraham Yost, and has had born to him by this union: Alemena K., John L., Sallie R. and Lizzie. The Doctor has been a school director since 1883, and he

To wrap up the Roll Call

Searching for info as to the parentage of HERMANUS BOTT born about 1697 in Palatine. He immigrated to the US 1743 on the ship "Loyal Judith".Records show that he married Anna Catherine Hahn 6-13-1749 as his second wife and an unknown woman in 1722, so therefore Anna wouldn't be the mother of the children.
I am looking for info regarding who the parents of Hermanus were and who the first wife and mother of the children were.
Thanks

HERMANUS BOTT AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Hermanus Bott purchased a tract of land, in 1752, adjoining the town of York, Pa., which had been laid out in 1741; Bott conceived the plan of founding a town of his own, and laid out a part of his tract into lots and sold some of on which houses were built. Upon this tract the village of Bottstown was built, it existed for more than a hundred years. About thirty years ago, Bottstown was annexed to York and then lost its name.

Hermanus Bott's will was probated in July, 1778. His children were Reinhard, Marvilis, John Adam, Adillia, Jacob and Catherine.

Hermanus Bott married Anna Catherina Hahn, 13 June, 1749
from microfische, L.D.S. Library, Indianapolis, Ind.

HISTORY

COUNTIES OF

DAUPHIN AND LEBANON

Counties, Pa.

IN THE

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA:

BIOGRAPHICAL AND GENEALOGICAL.

BY

WILLIAM HENRY EGLE, M.D., M.A.,

AUTHOR OF "HISTORY OF PENNSYLVANIA."

PHILADELPHIA:
EVERTS & PECK.
1883.

In 1724 the German Baptists, commonly known as Dunkards, commenced a settlement in this township as first organized. Many of these came from Germany and Holland in 1709, settled first at Germantown, and some years afterwards established a school and church at Mühlbach.

On the farm of S. Bomberger was erected, in 1723, a log fort, which was used by the settlers as a protection against the Indians, and near which several skirmishes occurred. Among the elements of natural wealth are the great deposits of brown sandstone in the southeastern part, much of which is on lands owned by William Weigley and Dr. Zerbe, and of which the former's elegant mansion is built.

The following-named persons were taxables in Heidelberg township the year following the separation of Berks from Lancaster County (1752):

INTRODUCTION and ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Information contained in this publication was compiled from a bound volume in the library of The Historical Society of York County, Pennsylvania. The volume was copied from typewritten sheets loaned by George R. Seiffert, Philadelphia, in 1932. These sheets were copied from the original manuscript in the custody of The Historical Society of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, where it is part of the Francis M. Etting Collection. The bound volume was checked for accuracy by the S.C.P.G.S. Publications Committee by comparing it with a microfilm copy of the original manuscript.

The original manuscript, labeled "Census of York County, 1762", is a listing by townships, of the rates and assessments of the inhabitants of each township. York County, in 1762, also included all townships in present day Adams County. The original manuscript provides the earlist nearly complete listing of York/Adams County "taxables" known to exist.

Portions of several pages of the original manuscript are missing. In Manchester Twp.(York Co.) approximately 16 surnames beginning with "C" thru "E" are missing, 5 surnames beginning with "G", 15 "R" thru "S" and 5 "S" thru "W". In York Twp.(York Co.) approximately 5 surnames beginning with "A", 6 "L" to "M", and 6 "R" to "S". In Reading Twp.(Adams Co.) approximately 6 surnames beginning with "S" to "T" are missing. Thus, all but approsimately 75 "taxables" of York County in 1762, are listed.

SPECIAL NOTE

When using this publication and also Special Publication Number 5, the user should remember that when Adams County was created in 1800 boundary changes took place involving several of the original townships.

Parts of Warrington, Monaghan, Heidelberg and Manheim Townships were given to Adams County. Eventually these were incorporated, along with other elements, into new townships. Warrington and Monaghan portions went into Latimore Township in 1807, and Heidelberg and Manheim elements into Conewago Township(Adams County) in 1801. Similarly, parts of Reading and Huntington Townships remained in York County and in 1802 became part of Washington Township.

Actually, there were for a few years Townships named Warrington, Monaghan, Heidelberg, Manheim, Reading and Huntington in both counties. To determine which county got the larger part of any of these would be exceedingly difficult. A careful and lengthy study of land records(deeds, etc.) would be necessary. We know of no individual, to date, who has accomplished this task.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL, GOSHENHOPPEN 1741

HISTORY

St. Paul's Chapel at Goshenhoppen arose in 1741 near the headwaters of the Perkiomen Creek in Perkiomen Valley, Berks County. The area, now called Bally after one of the parish's 19th century pastors, is 40 miles northwest of Philadelphia and 25 miles from Valley Forge. It could be reached in Colonial times directly along the Perkiomen Creek from Valley Forge or indirectly along the Schuylkill River from Pottstown or Reading or along the Delaware and Lehigh Rivers on the north by way of Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown. In time, the parish was renamed the Church of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Debate has come and gone as to the origin of the name "Goshenhoppen." Some authorities contend it is an Indian term for "meeting place." Others say it is taken from the biblical Goshen. Still others claim that is was a haven for immigrants from an area of Germany named Goshen. No one knows the origin of the name for sure, but it seems to date from at least 1728.

The Jesuits Arrive

The first missionary at Goshenhoppen was the Reverend Theodore Schneider, S.J., who arrived in America from Germany early in June, 1741. Apparently, he had been requested to come to America specifically to serve the Germans in the Pennsylvania missions and, along with the Reverend Wilhelm Wappeler, had been sponsored by Sir John James, the English Catholic from Chrishall in Essex. Because of his extraordinary education, Father Schneider was able to hold his own with sectarian preachers and because of his training in medicine, he had a unique entré to both Catholics and non-Catholics (who were mostly Mennonites and Hernhutters). Born in Geinsheim in the Palatinate in 1703, he entered the Society of Jesus at Watten, Belgium in 1721. By 1738 he had risen to Rector Magnificus of the University of Heidelberg. He arrived in America with Father Wappeler and travelled up into Pennsylvania on the Susquehanna. While Conewago legend has Father Schneider serving at Conewago for a time after his arrival, by August, 1741 he was busy at Goshenhoppen, compiling the earliest remaining registers of baptisms, marriages and deaths of any of the missionary parishes. Bishop Carroll once described him as "particularly gifted with a talent for business and possessed (of) consummate prudence and intrepid courage." At the bottom of his tombstone is inscribed the statement that "missionary activity existed here around the year 1716," which suggests that Goshenhoppen was a mission, well before his arrival in 1741.

Hi Folks: (The Bott(s) Boates, Butts clans)
Just thought you would all be interested in sharing the information that another Bott researcher forwarded to me today. Is there anymore family members out there with A-Negative Blood Type. The statistics I got from the Internet list only 6-7% percent of the world's population carry this bloodtype.

It would make an interesting analysis if you would contact me to let me know if any of your family members carry these (Bott(s) traits, such as the blood type, twins, lefthanded, and mechanically inclined. There is also a Channel Island Bleeding Disorder called Anti-thrombin 111 which is a clotting disorder that also may run in certain lines of the Bott(s) families. If you need any more information, please contact me. I would love to hear from you to see if any of these traits consistently show up in your families as well.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
Edna (Botts) Cudmore

Dear Edna:

I will try to respond to you letter for the 4th time today. I have had nothing but troible with this computer today. I've never had any lessons on one of these things. I've been doing fine untill today. Everything that can go wrong has gone wrong. To top it off, I've only had this foe about 1 month. Combine that with no lessons and it can be like the coyote chasing the roadrunner.

I will make this brief tonight, as I'm pretty worn out. I have not had a chance to read everything youm sent me yet, but will later tonight or in the morning, and then I can respond in greatewr detail.

In answer to your questions about my dad, Yes, he has A-Negative blood. He's right habded though, but probabaly the most mechanically minded person I've ever known. He can fix anything. He had his own tractor repair business for several years before he retired. That's pretty interesting stuff, alright. Likely not just a coincidence. Will take more digging to find out, but it's worthwhile.

This genealogy stuff is getting a good hold on me.

I will let you go for now, but will get involved in more detail tomorrow. Thank you for contacting me.

Thanks again,

Hi Carolyn: You even have a common Botts name, as my line has many Caroline, Carrie's etc. My youngest daughter is called Carrie as well and it turns out that she resembles my father's aunts, who were indentical twins.

I find this exciting and interesting how so many people with the surname Bott(s) Butt(s) or any other derivative seem to carry these individual and somewhat unusual genetic traits. I will have to check out this A-Negative Blood Type percentage statistics more to ascertain if that is correct, only 6-7% of the world population. If that is the case then I wonder how many of them have direct connections in their past to the Bott family. It would make for interesting research.

I don't know if you follow the Bott.family genforum at Roots web or not. http://genforum.genealogy.com/bott/ or this one below:

If you send a message to Dave Botts on the Bott genforum with the same information, he may also be able to help you out.

As for the Channel Island, since they are located between England and France, they are not that far from either Germany or Holland. There are also Bott families of Russian and English descent.

I am especially interested in hearing from Bott(s) families who live in Jersey of Guernsey, USA since I would think they also would have ties to the Channel Islands, Jersey and Guernsey.

So, thank you for contactin me. I will notate your name and the derivative of the Bott(s) surname. If you want to exchange further information, I would key it in and hopefully be able to update you further with more contacts.

Thanks so much for your reply. Have a Happy Thanksgiving from Prince Edward Island, Canada.

One gentleman sent me research on the Bott English family which I have somewhere if you are interested in reading it as well.

Thanks again and please stay in touch.

Hi Folks: (The Bott(s) Boates, Butts clans)
Just thought you would all be interested in sharing the information that another Bott researcher forwarded to me today. Is there anymore family members out there with A-Negative Blood Type. The statistics I got from the Internet list only 6-7% percent of the world's population carry this bloodtype.

It would make an interesting analysis if you would contact me to let me know if any of your family members carry these (Bott(s) traits, such as the blood type, twins, lefthanded, and mechanically inclined. There is also a Channel Island Bleeding Disorder called Anti-thrombin 111 which is a clotting disorder that also may run in certain lines of the Bott(s) families. If you need any more information, please contact me. I would love to hear from you to see if any of these traits consistently show up in your families as well.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
Edna (Botts) Cudmore

Hi fellow family members and other Bott(s) researchers. Our Bott(s) family in Prince Edward Island, Canada has finally located our ancestors in Alderney, one of the Channel Islands. I am copying and pasting parts of the messages received from Tim, the husband of a lady who is connected to the Bot family in Alderney, one of the Channel Islands between England and France. It just goes to show how successful we can be if we continue to share our information and help each other out in our family research.

For those Prince Edward Island Bott(s) family members our two ancestors from Alderney were Jean Richard Bot (1792-1862) and Anne Susan D. Picot (1802-1866) who came to Prince Edward Island, Canada in 1822. I have also included part of another file which shows some other Alderney Bot families who emigrated to Ontario and settled in Walkerville for your information, just in case you may have contacts with that line as well. It will be at the end of this message. From the messages and replies that I have received from fellow Bott(s) & Butt(s) researchers there seems to be families in the Channel Islands, England, Australia, Newfoundland, Michigan, Ontario, New Jersey, Germany and Russiae. I have included some of the contact names and parts of their messages, just in case any of you may also be able to find a "common" ancestor.

So, hopefully this message will be of some benefit to other Channel Island descendants or anybody with Bott(s) ancestery still looking for their roots. If you are interested in receiving the .ged file of the 116 Bot people listed in the Rootscom website, please let me know and I will forward it to you at a later date when I get it all keyed in. Thank you all very much for sharing your Bott(s) roots and I hope that you will be as fortunate as I was because somebody on the Channel Islands List took the time to reply to my inquiry. Now, thanks to Tim's reply, we know for sure where our Bott(s) line came from and what other lines in the Channel Islands that we are connected to. If there is a connection to this suspected inherited bleeding which may have its roots in the Channel Islands, this information should help narrow it down to a more defined list of interconnected families. Certain people in our line are affected with some degree of bleeding disorder.. There have been incidences of post-operative bleeding complications, leg ulcers and many nosebleeds, etc. It seems there are also some incidences where there have been problems in matching their antibodies, in addition to quite a few having this rare blood type, A-Negative. I still have to do a total count on the number of Bott(s) replies I have received that continue to display some of these particular family genetic traits. However, it seems to be in the range of 20-30 to date, and that reflects only the ones that have replied to me personally.

Good luck in your research and Happy New Year.

Hello Edna,
I've just received your email. I'll reply again later, but for now, I thought I'd mention that my wife is also A-negative, although luckily she doesn't suffer from any bleeding disorders. Also, it's probably worth mentioning that the Channel Islands (including Alderney) spoke a form of French up until this century (a few older people still do), and that the official language was French until, I believe, around 1920. It's still used (as well as English) for some official business. If John Richard was a magistrate, then he would certainly be familiiar with, and use, official French, as well as the local French dialect. English was also widely spoken in the Channel Islands by the end of the 18th Century. He may have described himself as an "English" Magistrate simply because it was easier than explaining about the Channel Islands! he may also have spent some time in England - educated people from the Channel Islands sometimes spent time in England to improve their English.
Regards
Tim

" History of Whitley and Noble Counties, Indiana" Written by Weston A. Goodspeed and Charles Blanchard, and published in Chicago by F. A. Battey & Co., in 1882.

B. F. PUTT, M. D., is the son of John W. and Mary Putt. His father was born in Washington County, Md., March 24, 1819, the son of Benjamin and Barbara Putt, born in the said county. They moved to Stark County, Ohio, in 1826, and settled on the spot where Massillon now stands. Benjamin was born in 1756, and was of Holland descent. At the age of nineteen, he enlisted in the Revolutionary war, serving under Capt. George Lancaster a part of the time and under George Washington the balance. After the war, he settled on a farm in Bucks County, Penn. Was married, in 1813, to Barbara Lowman; moved to Washington County, Md., and, in 1826, to Stark County, Ohio, and there died in 1852, aged ninety-six years, his wife surviving him four years. They left a family of four boys and three girls. John W. was the fourth son, was born in Washington County March 24, 1819, came with his parents to Ohio, and was there married, January 1, 1841, to Mary Wiest, who was born in Huntingdon County, Penn., January 1, 1819, the daughter of, Jacob and Catharine Wiest, who emigrated from Germany to Cumberland County, Penn., about 1805, and purchased a large tract of land, which was all lost through a poor title, and then moved, in 1827, to Massillon, Ohio, where the father shortly after died, leaving a wife and seven children, Mary being the eldest daughter; shortly after, the mother followed the father. John W. followed his trade of wagon-maker in Stark County until 1853, when he moved to Allen County, Ind., and purchased the farm on which he and wife now reside, enjoying life at the ripe age of sixty-five, after having, reared a family of eight children, born and named as follows : Sarah A., October 9, 1841; Harvey A., May 20, 1843; Caroline, April 19, 1845; William, March 25, 1849; John, March 24, 1851; Benjamin F., August 16, 1853; Rosana, March 19, 1858, died January 23, 1861; Charlie, August 6, 1859. At the age of six years, our subject, Benjamin F., began his studies in a country school, which he continued till his twelfth year, when the family moved to Fort Wayne; here he attended the Western College four years, when his father moved back to his farm. The New Year's Eve of 1868, our subject lost three fingers from his left hand by the explosion of a gun, which accident disabled him as a farmer, and he then began the study of medicine. Having already acquired considerable knowledge of anatomy and physiology, he made very rapid progress. He entered a drug store at Nine Mile, Allen County, as druggist and Deputy Postmaster, at the same time practicing medicine until 1876, when the Medical College at Fort Wayne was organized. Here he attended a five-months course of lectures, had access to the hospital wards daily, and read in the office of W. H. Myers, the well-known surgeon. Having completed his collegiate course, he came to Forest in 1877, and resumed practice in association with Dr. John Richards, and soon gained the confidence of the public as a competent, careful and attentive physician. April 17, 1878, he married Miss Lillian E. Barger, daughter of Elias and Mary Barger. Elias Barger was born in Mahoning County, Ohio, October 15, 1833, his wife in Delaware County, Ind., October

4, 1833, and they were married at Roanoke, Huntington County, Ind., September 10, 1857, where they still reside, enjoying, every comfort and the respect of all who know them, and the enduring love of their two children-- Lillian E., born April 2, 1860, and Flora E., born August 29, 1862. Shortly after his marriage, Dr. Putt purchased property at Forest, and withdrew from his partnership with Dr. Richards. In 1881, he took a second course of lectures at Fort Wayne College, and graduated with high honors. His practice is now very extensive as well as lucrative. He has a fine residence, a well- stored library, and has made a number of paying investments. He has one son-Harold F., born September 23, 1880. He is a member of the Masonic order, which he joined in 1876; and is also Deputy District Grand Master of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, and is altogether a popular and rising young man.
